

You musn't attack him and dont dare to whack him,
For you would regret it I think ;
He may break your head but six months in bed,
Is better than two in the clink.

He may bruise your skin but bear it and grin
It's obvious, so be content,
That a horse is expensive, costs fifty or so,
And a man doesn't cost a damn cent.

NO Phyllis, we cannot tell you how to make that "certain gunner in the 66th" pop the question. Some fellows are awfully slow, like an old hound, all they want is to be sure they are on the right track. We might suggest, if one of this kind is after you, that you make for a hole like a frightened bunny, and if he doesn't commence to dig you out right away, you will know he is only hunting for fun.

IT has been brought to the attention of the G.O.C. that several members of the C.E.F., notably men undergoing F.P. No. 2 and kitchen fatigue have formed the habit of refraining from washing during their tenure of office. O.C's units will see that these "statues of filth" wash and shave whether they need it or not, and in future all offenders will be severely dealt with.
