

EXTRADITION AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE STATE OF ISRAËL

The Government of Canada and the Government of the State of Israel, desiring to make provision for the reciprocal extradition of persons convicted or accused of criminal offences, have agreed as follows:

Article 1

The Contracting Parties agree reciprocally to extradite, under the terms and conditions of this Agreement, any person who, being accused or convicted of an offence committed within the territory of one Party, shall be found in the territory of the other Party; provided always that such offence is mentioned in the Schedule and such offence is punishable in accordance with the laws of both Parties.

Article 2

For the purposes of this Agreement "territory" shall be deemed to be all the territory falling under the jurisdiction of the Contracting Parties including their territorial waters and vessels and aircraft registered therein, and an offence committed partly within the territory of one Party shall be deemed to have been committed within its territory.

Article 3

The determination that extradition, based upon a request therefor, should or should not be granted shall be made in accordance with the domestic law of the requested Party and the person whose extradition is sought (the "person claimed") shall have the right to such remedies and recourses as are provided by such law.

Article 4

A person claimed shall not be extradited if

- (a) he is under examination or trial in the territory of the requested Party for the act for which his extradition is requested;
- (b) he has already been tried and acquitted or punished anywhere for the act for which his extradition is requested;
- (c) he is exempt from prosecution or punishment by lapse of time or other lawful cause according to the law of the requesting or requested Party for the offence for which his extradition is requested;
- (d) the offence for which his extradition is requested is one of a political character or the request for his extradition has been made with a view to prosecute or punish him for an offence of a political character;
- (e) the request for his extradition has been made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing him on account of his race, religion, nationality or political opinion or his position may be prejudiced for any of these reasons; or
- (f) he was convicted in contumacium.
