

Labour—Con.Railway strike—Con.

Negotiating committee for unions refused offer of Prime Minister for a thirty-day respite, 64

Negotiations, order in council extending time for, tabled, 569

Number of votes for, 23

Railway companies not negotiating in good faith, 38

Report of Dr. Mackintosh, 40

Resumption of services, 68

Review of situation, 15-22, 38

Should have been settled before parliament met, 32

Similar to a communist victory, 83

Termination of under arbitration, no continuing authority for, 29

Time limit for reaching agreement, extension of, 69-71

Seafarers' international union, strike on Pacific coast, 110

Statement of Mr. Gregg, 155

Steel Company, Hamilton, loss of rights and benefits by employees, on enlistment, 393, 403, 463-64

Steel industry, unrest in, 135

Strikes

No power under essential materials legislation to intervene in, 533

Should not be allowed to paralyze economic life of nation, 84-87

Union dues, voluntary check-off, 44-45, 58-61

Unions

Lenin on, 699

Purging communists from, 699-700

Wages. See also Controls

And direction of labour, control of under essential materials legislation, 520

Index of has risen more than cost of living index, 676

Over-all program for suggested, 125

Policies to obviate inflationary spiral, 294

Labour Department, minister of should be a labour man, 37-38

Langlois, Mr. J. G. L. (Gaspé; Parliamentary Assistant to Postmaster General)

Address in reply, 188-92

Appointed parliamentary assistant, 759

Lapointe, Hon. Hugues (Minister of Veterans Affairs)

Appointment as Minister of Veterans Affairs, 10

League of Nations, failure of, 120

Legislation. See also House of Commons

"Big stick" legislation, 544-45

By assertion, 585

Legislation—Con.Emergency powers

Now being asked for by the opposition, 459

Setting out clearly and concisely, 455

Extension by address, reduces opportunity for discussion, 568

Omnibus legislation, 535

Punitive, should not contain generalities, 544-45

Recognizing an emergency should have been brought in under a comprehensive statute, 515-16

Standby legislation. See Controls

"You do this or else" legislation, 535

Lesage, Mr. Jean (Montmagny-L'Islet; Parliamentary Assistant to Secretary of State for External Affairs)

Appointed parliamentary assistant, 759

Liberal Party. See also Government; St. Laurent, Rt. Hon. L. S.

Communist support in Grey North, 250

Conscription issue raised by, 251

"No commitments," policy of, 253

"Liberation", countries would like to be spared process of, if possible, 149, 224

Lie, Trygve. See United Nations

Lieutenant-Governor, abolition of office of, 380-81

Lighters, ash trays, etc., tax, 714

Liquor Tax. See Alcoholic Liquors

Live StockCattle

Beef, agreements or subsidies for producers of, 143-46

High price, reasons for, 462

Prices set by packing companies, 239

Loan Sharks. See references in debate on Consumer Credit (Temporary Provisions) Bill

Loans. See Finance

London Conference. See Commonwealth Conferences

Lorneville, N.B., breakwater, 694

Low, Mr. Solon E. (Peace River)

Address in reply, 125-30

Adjournment of parliament until February 14, 1951, M. (Mr. St. Laurent), 749

Budget, 608-15