

which could not have been different in the present international context, Canadians in general could only be grateful to them.

It is out of the question for the Government of Canada to out-Herod Herod, that is for the Government of Canada to go further with respect to the Soviet Union than the United States did when they allowed the Soviet athletes to enter their country for the games that were held at Lake Placid last

Adjournment Debate

February. Mr. Speaker, if one were to follow the reasoning of the hon. member for Halton, one would have to conclude that President Carter himself is following a hypocritical and inconsistent policy.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Blaker): No one having risen to speak, I declare the motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p.m.

Motion agreed to and the House adjourned at 10.19 p.m.
