operations would be extremely difficult to implement in a modern transportation system.

I mentioned that inequities would arise in the application of our labour relations laws as they apply to industries under the Canada Labour Code. I referred to CN Rail as the example. The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation is also a Crown corporation.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): It being 1.49 p.m., pursuant to Standing Order 93, the time provided for debate has expired.

[Translation]

The question is on the motion of the hon. member for Richelieu. Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

Some hon. members: No.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): All those in favour of the motion will please say yea.

Some hon. members: Yea.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): All those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. members: Nay.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five members having risen:

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): Call in the members.

And the bells having rung:

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): The hon. member for Saint-Denis, on a point of order.

Mr. Marcel Prud'homme (Saint-Denis): Mr. Speaker, on a point of order.

Since this is a private member's bill, I hope the House will agree to let us vote row by row, according to the custom we adopted recently, instead of party by party. I ask this since it is a private member's bill.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): Do I have unanimous consent for taking the division row by row?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): Perhaps I may remind hon. members that the first to vote will be those who are in favour of the motion. I will start by requesting those members in the rows to the right of the Chair to rise, followed by members in the rows to the left of the Chair.

Subsequently, I will ask members in the rows to the right of the Chair who are opposed to the motion to rise, and I will conclude with those in the rows to the left of the Chair.

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Plamondon), which was negated on the following division:

(Division No. 312)
