

in 1928, when I was absent from the University for a year.

If it is considered advisable to change the regulations governing the Faculty, I have no objections; but until the regulations are changed, I think we should carry on in the authorized manner.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.

copy also