Sir Arthur Currie, K. C. M. G.,
Principal,
McGill University.

Dear Sir Arthur Currie,

Your note has just arrived. It puzzled me, at first. But by reference to the announcement of the George Williams College I understand your quite natural mistake. The teacher mentioned is J. W. Brunt, principal of Argyle School, Westmount - no relation of mine, but a very fine fellow, formerly principal at Lachute.

I undertake no work outside Macdonald College, in teaching or lecturing save the extra-mural lectures under Colonel Boney's Department - of course, I do committee work in the Provincial Teachers' Association. With Dean Baird's consent, I have just completed a Report of Investigation into the Teaching of English in the Schools of the Province.

Enclosed, sir, is a memo. of my work here, as you request.

Faithfully yours,
J. W. Brunt,
