

HAIL GLORIOUS APOSTLE!

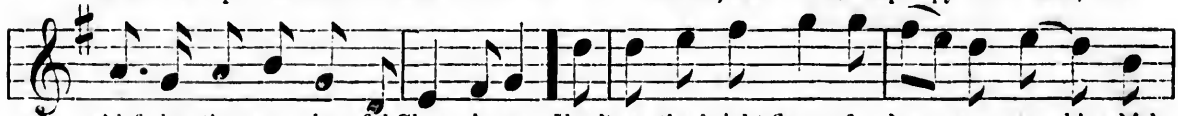

Chorus for ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

1. Hail, Glo - rious A - pos - tle! se - lect - ed by God to enlarge the bless'd pale of Christ's
 2. The Saint, well a - ware how im - port - ant is pray'r to succeed in the gain - ing of
 3. Ah! now that thou'rt plac'd in the King - dom of peace, O most ho - ly A - pos - tle! our faith - ful be - liev - ers, Ac - cept our weak ef - forts to hon - or thy vir - tues and souls to th' Al - mighty, Him - self did u - nite with the source of all light in that faith - ful pro - tec - tion! Look down on I - re - land, that once hap - py is - land, but chief - ly thy won - der - ful Char - i - ty; For 'twas thy bright flame of love se - ra - phic which ex - er - cise most as - sid - u - ous - ly; The glo - ry of God to pro - pa - gate,.... he now per - se - cu - ted and suf - fer - ing; Ob - rain for that na - tion ev - ry grace which mov'd thee thy country and kindred to leave; All earthly en - joyment and comforts to part with, zea - lous - ly founded three monas - ter - ies; And schools did es - ta - blish in ev - 'ry quar - ter. Hail!

 may draw up - on it the blessing of Heav'n; And may all the nations be peaceful and hap - py.

Glorious A - pos - tle! se - lect - ed by God to en - large the bless'd pale of Christ's faithful believer, Ac - -cept our weak efforts to hon - or thy vir - tues, and, chief - ly, thy won - der - ful Char - i - ty.