HIGHER COST OF PRODUCTION WILL FORCE HOUSE PRICES UP

Land is Higher in Price, Tho Scarcity May Not Be So Great—Material Hard to Get and Advances in Some Lines Are Big—Higher Rates For Money Obtaining—Labor Will Be Dearer.

There can be no cessation this year of the advance in the cost of houses. Rather are prices likely to make a sudden jump with the opening of the spring market.

It looks as if the tenseness of the land situation would ease slightly. Considerable more improved property will be available for operations than the city limits than at the opening of last spring.

Hardly a foot of land that has water connections is out of the hands of the constructor, and many builders are now preparing to build on land that they have no assurance will be given services this year.

NORTHWEST INVESTMENTS.

In the World of Monday last there appeared a despatch from New York containing some particulars regarding the discovery of rich tar sands or asphalt deposits in Northern Alberta.

Robert C. Bustard will this spring build 42 semi-detached houses in Moore Park, on Wilhem avenue and Grace terrace.

Mr. Bustard's program is extensive one—building 21 Pairs in Moore Park.
