

POLICE DECLINE TO TAKE CENSUS

Could Not Handle Extra Work in Opinion of the Commission.

ON CHARGE OF BIGAMY

Clarence E. Fowler, Guard at Pumping Station, Placed Under Arrest.

Toronto police commissioners yesterday declined to act on the council's suggestion that the police take a census of the unemployed in Toronto.

The annual estimates this year amount to $855,400, a slight increase over last year, caused by 40 men being on active service and drawing pay.

Chief Grassett stated that very soon the men would again receive their day off every week.

Inspector Charlton's resignation was accepted, but it is to date from April 1 next. In the meantime he draws full pay.

The total assets of the Police Benefit Fund are now $523,884, an increase of $64,000.

Arrested for Bigamy. Clarence E. Fowler, 25 Maple Grove avenue, a member of the Queen's Own Regiment, stationed as a guard at the high level pumping station on Poplar Plains road, was arrested last night by Constable Massey of the morality department on a charge of bigamy.

It is alleged that Fowler married his first wife on December 25, 1912. On the 15th of this month he is alleged to have married Gertrude Vagpancy.

Four men were arrested by members of the detective department on charges of vagrancy yesterday. They are Alfred Wilkinson, no home; Tom Brown, no home; by Twigg and Taylor; and William Wilson, no home, by Armstrong and Levitt.

Also they are held on the nominal charge of vagrancy it is thought they can be identified with a large number of thefts that have been committed in several districts.

Isaac Edwards, 1471 Yonge street, was arrested by officer 538 last evening charged with stealing $12 from Fred Duncan, 427 Clinton street. The man who is alleged to have sold a horse by misrepresentation.

Ernest Haggard, 401 Alton street, was arrested yesterday charged with the theft of a pair of gloves from the Robert Simpson Company.

Nerlich in Good Spirits. Emil Nerlich occupied the same cell in the jail Sunday night as Harry Aghar, who shot the Rev. J. McPherson Scott some time ago in the east end. Governor Chambers said, Nerlich appeared to be in good spirits and had no complaints to make about his treatment.

Nerlich has all his meals brought in from outside. Another week's remand was granted the McCutcheon brothers and Marshal A. Cooke by Magistrate Denison in police court yesterday.

McCutcheon and Cooke were each bound in the sum of $5000 with two sureties of $2500 each.

Charged with picking pockets at the corner of Bay and Queen streets Jessie Thompson was remanded a week in police court yesterday and allowed out on $500 bail.

Nicholas Gorman, proprietor of the New Teck Hotel, was fined $20 and costs in police court for keeping his bar open after hours.

Constable Fox and Clifford Delaney were again remanded and allowed out on $500 bail.

Selling the balance of our $50,000 Storm Ulsters at 25c. Materials are all 48c. to the yard; best buy in Toronto. Oak Mall, Clothiers, Yonge and Adelaide.

OFFICIAL STATEMENTS

FRENCH. The British troops repulsed last night a new attack on Giverny-Las-Bassas, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

Last evening, after a violent attack, which has already been reported, the enemy was able to enter our trenches between Giverny and the Foulon wood, and by a counter attack succeeded in re-occupying their positions of the day before.

The fighting has been very violent on the only road between Bethune and La Bassas, and the Germans have left behind 300 dead.

FOUND NOT GUILTY ON THIRD COUNT

Portion of Union Life Case Disposed of by Decision.

OPERATION AS ASSET

William Fahey Gives Evidence on Bookkeeping Employed.

At the resumed session of the Union Life case, in which Harry Symons and Dr. F. G. Hughes are accused of conspiring to defraud the defendant, the jury on the third count, which held Dr. Hughes and Symons as conspirators in a plan to defraud, regarding the Canada Provident Investment Corporation, Ltd.

At the opening of the morning session G. A. Clarkson was called to the witness stand by the prosecution.

Dr. Herbert Lennox then, after ascertaining what the general expenses were for 1909 and findings that Mr. Clarkson's evidence was that the failure of the good-will, pressed the point that the amount spent in developing the business should be attached to the good-will items.

Mismanagement and Expansion. The final sum and substance of Mr. Clarkson's evidence was that the failure of the company was due to mismanagement, but Mr. Lennox gained a vital point when the witness acknowledged that over-expansion was very largely a factor in the tumble.

Mr. Evans seemed to be the chief reason for this last year's collapse. As was to be expected, there was some fine explanation due from Mr. Clarkson. He was acting in a private capacity at the time of the collapse, and complained that all the true information was not placed before him in consequence of this trouble he had resigned his position with the Prudential. The company, if the government had stopped its operations, would have been a very profitable concern today.

Douglas J. Scott, the employ of the Union Life for a number of years as field manager, was called to the witness stand at the afternoon session, and his appearance commenced the defence in the case.

Mr. Scott, in examining Mr. Scott, revealed the fact that the necessity of additional capital, immediately sent Scott, Muecke and Symons to go to the English fish shareholders in the Union Life to invest more money in order to save that they had already put in, but in a very small amount.

Next witness called was William Fahey, a Toronto accountant, who held his ground remarkably well under a grueling cross-examination by E. E. A. DuVerne. Mr. DuVerne was endeavoring to prove that the witness was dishonest in various particulars when he was auditing the company books, and after showing an abstract of receipts and liabilities, asked him to show the losses that was a fair way to show the losses of any company. Mr. Fahey said it was not the general practice to audit the books of a company.

In the course of his testimony Mr. Fahey informed the court that it was the custom to apply the cost of operating to the asset column, at least for a period of years, even for ten years or at least until the company could get itself well established, showing that money paid out for expenses was treated on the books as assets, but Mr. DuVerne pointed out that on this basis he could go into business and spend $100,000 every year for ten years, and at the end of ten years be worth $10,000,000. In producing a large number of vouchers, Mr. DuVerne wanted to know what the object was, and made the inference that it was to hide the losses from the shareholders.

Before closing Mr. Fahey was asked if he could show anywhere on the books where the $750,000 National Agency money was treated as a liability to the Union Life. Mr. DuVerne seemed to be satisfied with the silence, saying that he never found it he wished he would show it.

Operation as Asset. In the course of his testimony Mr. Fahey informed the court that it was the custom to apply the cost of operating to the asset column, at least for a period of years, even for ten years or at least until the company could get itself well established, showing that money paid out for expenses was treated on the books as assets, but Mr. DuVerne pointed out that on this basis he could go into business and spend $100,000 every year for ten years, and at the end of ten years be worth $10,000,000. In producing a large number of vouchers, Mr. DuVerne wanted to know what the object was, and made the inference that it was to hide the losses from the shareholders.

Before closing Mr. Fahey was asked if he could show anywhere on the books where the $750,000 National Agency money was treated as a liability to the Union Life. Mr. DuVerne seemed to be satisfied with the silence, saying that he never found it he wished he would show it.

Operation as Asset. In the course of his testimony Mr. Fahey informed the court that it was the custom to apply the cost of operating to the asset column, at least for a period of years, even for ten years or at least until the company could get itself well established, showing that money paid out for expenses was treated on the books as assets, but Mr. DuVerne pointed out that on this basis he could go into business and spend $100,000 every year for ten years, and at the end of ten years be worth $10,000,000. In producing a large number of vouchers, Mr. DuVerne wanted to know what the object was, and made the inference that it was to hide the losses from the shareholders.

Before closing Mr. Fahey was asked if he could show anywhere on the books where the $750,000 National Agency money was treated as a liability to the Union Life. Mr. DuVerne seemed to be satisfied with the silence, saying that he never found it he wished he would show it.

Operation as Asset. In the course of his testimony Mr. Fahey informed the court that it was the custom to apply the cost of operating to the asset column, at least for a period of years, even for ten years or at least until the company could get itself well established, showing that money paid out for expenses was treated on the books as assets, but Mr. DuVerne pointed out that on this basis he could go into business and spend $100,000 every year for ten years, and at the end of ten years be worth $10,000,000. In producing a large number of vouchers, Mr. DuVerne wanted to know what the object was, and made the inference that it was to hide the losses from the shareholders.

Before closing Mr. Fahey was asked if he could show anywhere on the books where the $750,000 National Agency money was treated as a liability to the Union Life. Mr. DuVerne seemed to be satisfied with the silence, saying that he never found it he wished he would show it.

Operation as Asset. In the course of his testimony Mr. Fahey informed the court that it was the custom to apply the cost of operating to the asset column, at least for a period of years, even for ten years or at least until the company could get itself well established, showing that money paid out for expenses was treated on the books as assets, but Mr. DuVerne pointed out that on this basis he could go into business and spend $100,000 every year for ten years, and at the end of ten years be worth $10,000,000. In producing a large number of vouchers, Mr. DuVerne wanted to know what the object was, and made the inference that it was to hide the losses from the shareholders.

Before closing Mr. Fahey was asked if he could show anywhere on the books where the $750,000 National Agency money was treated as a liability to the Union Life. Mr. DuVerne seemed to be satisfied with the silence, saying that he never found it he wished he would show it.

Operation as Asset. In the course of his testimony Mr. Fahey informed the court that it was the custom to apply the cost of operating to the asset column, at least for a period of years, even for ten years or at least until the company could get itself well established, showing that money paid out for expenses was treated on the books as assets, but Mr. DuVerne pointed out that on this basis he could go into business and spend $100,000 every year for ten years, and at the end of ten years be worth $10,000,000. In producing a large number of vouchers, Mr. DuVerne wanted to know what the object was, and made the inference that it was to hide the losses from the shareholders.

IMPORTS FROM GERMANY PRACTICALLY CUT OFF

About Twenty-Six Thousand Dollars' Worth of Dolls Smuggled in for Christmas.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Jan. 26.—The September report of the department of trade and commerce, which is just to hand, shows that during the first full month of the year the imports from Germany fell from $24,448 in 1914 to $34,992 in 1915. Exports to Germany were $141,539 in September, 1915, and $1603 in September, 1914.

About $25,000 worth of the imports were German dolls and toys for the Christmas sale. It is an iron clad fact that these came by way of the United States.

COMMANDER REFUSED TO LEAVE SUBMARINE. Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to PARIS, Jan. 26.—Details of the loss of the French submarine Saphir show that she penetrated the Dardanelles on Jan. 17, as far as Narzo. Diving to pass under Turkish mines, she struck the bottom A. Cuthbertson, who was badly damaged. Her commander skillfully brought her to the surface, and she was towed to the coast.

MISSIONS RESPONSIBLE FOR INDIA'S LOYALTY. Annual Meeting of Gwalior Society Held in New Beach Church.

J. K. MacDonald was re-elected president of the "Gwalior," an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, an Indian mission conducted by the Canadian Presbyterian Church in India, at the annual meeting held in New Beach Church, Toronto, last night.

York County and Suburbs of Toronto

OPPOSE LOCATION OF FOREST SCHOOL

High Park Residents Fear It Will Be Detriment to District.

BIG JOINT MEETING Claim City Should Provide Site of Two Acres Elsewhere.

Timely discussion marked last night's joint meeting of the Northwest Ward Seven and High Park Ratepayers' Association, in connection with the proposed location of a forest school in High Park.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

Trustee Hodgson, who presided, stated that the proposed site in High Park was not suitable for a forest school, and that the city should provide a site of two acres elsewhere.

WARDEN OF YORK

COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTS WARDEN

Jonathan Nigh of Markham Township Chosen by Acclamation.

INAUGURAL MEETING

Rearrangement of School Inspectors' Work Main Topic Today.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

Jonathan Nigh, reeve of Markham Township, was elected warden of York County by acclamation at the inaugural meeting of the county council yesterday.

BOLTON REJOICES IN HYDRO POWER

Much Enthusiasm at Opening Ceremony in Town Hall.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated at a ceremony in the town hall yesterday.

BOLTON, Jan. 25.—The advent of hydro-electric power into the village of Bolton was celebrated