

EXHIBITED BY THE
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Small Samples of Woods.

- 1—White Pine (Pinus monticola) slab and plank from the mill of E. Stamp and Co., Alberni.
 - 2—Oak (Quercus garryana). See 59 to 63.
 - 3—A walking cane of the same.
 - 4—Douglas Pine (Abies Douglasii) slab, joist, and flooring from the mill of E. Stamp and Co., Alberni.
 - 5—Yew (Taxus baccata).
 - 6—Silver Fir (Abies alba glauca).
 - 7—Spruce (Abies alba).
 - 8—Yellow Cypress (Thuja gigantea).
 - 9—Ditto ditto a slab of.
 - 10—Ditto ditto box made of.
 - 11—Ditto ditto polished section of, in frame of yew—[see also 18, 19].
 - 12—Red Cedar. See 20.
 - 13—Hemlock (Abies Canadensis).
 - 14—Maple (Acer macrophyllum).
 - 15—Dogwood (Cornus alba)—[superior for gunpowder charcoal].
 - 16—Alder.
 - 17—Arbutus (Arbutus procera).
 - 18—Cones and seeds of Thuja gigantea. See 8 to 11.
 - 19—Bark and twigs of ditto.
 - 20—Cones and seeds of Red Cedar, a tree abundant on the N. Pacific coast—larger sections are exhibited by B. Columbia.
-