

for us," we need, and we value your prayers. "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." Offer your supplications before the throne of grace, that, "the Word of the Lord," through our ministrations, "may have free course and be glorified." Let us walk together in the fellowship of the gospel. Let us earnestly and unitedly seek grace for this purpose; and as God shall be pleased to impart his grace, so shall we "walk by faith, and not by sight," Blessed, inexpressibly blessed, is the termination of such a course. The Holy Ghost thus depicts it, "receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

"Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever, Amen."
