

THE WAY TO GIVE A PARTY IN NEW YORK.

A sign of autumn's return is seen in the announcements of the caterers—those convenient people who relieve fashionable folk from all the trouble and details of giving entertainments—whether a grand wedding reception, a ceremonious banquet or small entertainment. If Mrs. —, of Madison Avenue, concludes to give a large party, and desires to take little or no trouble in the matter, she simply sends for a caterer of reputation, mentions the character of the entertainment, and hands him the list of invited guests. He furnishes the engraved cards, and delivers them, supplies a band of music, decorates the house with natural flowers, sends a corps of waiters, and prepares a table with all the delicacies of the season, including wines of choice vintage. All that madame is called upon to do is to array herself in becoming attire for the occasion, and "receive" her guests, as 'tis called. This plan is stylish, fashionable, gives perfect ease to the host—and is expensive, of course; but the idea can also be carried out in a moderate and modest way at less cost. GEORGE E. GREENE & SON, Caterers, 113 West 28th St., for instance, will execute any order, large or small, and so far as we learn, they give entire satisfaction. This firm counts among its customers some of our most wealthy and distinguished families, and not a few entertainments which they furnish, Delmonico receives credit for. Delmonico's viands are not superior in quality nor in manner of preparation to GREENE'S, and his ice cream is not so pleasant to our palate.

MERWIN, HULBERT & CO.,

26 West 23d Street, New York.

Send 25 cents for our

 175 Page Catalogue,
10 x 12 inches.

35 PAGES DEVOTED TO

→FISHING TACKLE.←

Most complete Catalogue on Out-door Sports ever Published.

BICYCLES,  TRICYCLES,  LAWN TENNIS, Etc.