HAMILTON, Oct. 12.—(Special.)—The announcement of the provincial elexi-tions has started a ready flow of politi-cal gossip here, and a great deal of speculation is being indulged in as to ronstituancies in Wentworth County. The only safe prediction at present is in West Hamilton, and it is fairly cer-tain that he will be elected, no matter who his oppoment might be. It is con-tidered doubtful, however, that the Liberals will contest this seat. Alian Studholme, the sturdy laborthe now sitting for Fasst Hamilton, will also be a candidate for re-election. It is certain that he will be opposed, but is riding. The schought by some that Dan Gah lagher, reeve of Bartton, could take the the case. Tuckett Estate Wins. The action brought by the trustees of the Tuskett estate against R. R. Simp-son, to recover possession of one share of Hamilton Jockey Club stock, was this afternoon decided by Justice Brit-ton in favor of the plaintiffs. The de-fendant claimed that the stock, which is now worth about $2000 a share, was bought by him in 1906 for $40. The plaintiffs alleged that the stock was practically loaned, and that the de-fendant signed an agreement to re-transfer it to the estate on demand. I. F. Hellmuth, K.C., of Toronto, for the plaintiffs, and George Tate Black-stock, K.C., for the defendant, argued the case.
