66 CAY, George, these cigarettes are a preity fine line; what do you D call them?"

"Club Virginias-Tuckett's, you know. Do you like them?"

"Rather. I've been over all the hurdles in cigarette sampling, but none I've ever tried can touch these for a really gilt-edged smoke. I thought I had reached what you might call the ultimate in cigarettes, but these Tuckett's have put me one notch higher. Just as an evidence of good faith, I'm going to call the waiter and order another box."

"All right, old man, I'm with you."

As an accompaniment to a grill lunch. Tuckett's Special Turkish or Tuckett's Club Virginias according to your tasts contribute a definite enjoyment. The fine, mellow flavor of the pure leaf tobacco blends delightfully with the coffee and adds a pleasurable finality to the meal.

Miss Haswell in "A Night Off."

When Mr. Sothern and Miss Marlowe end their engagement Wednesday night. Miss Haswell will start into her own again with a popular matinee on Thursday, presenting "A Night Off," for the balance of the week. This ever popular farce is no stranger to Toronto. It is recognized as one of the biggest laugh creaters the stage has given us. That the farce will be properly acted, and all the most humorous situations brought out, goes without saying, as Miss Haswell was one of Augus-Daly's company when he first produced it in New York, where it kept everybody in roars of laughter. the Thursday matinee, which takes the place of the Wednesday matinee this week, all seats will be twentyfive cents.
