Many Buyers and Sales At Maher's Exchange

The sale at Maher's Horse Exchange yesterday was characterized by the large number of horses offered, a record number of buyers, spirited bidding, fair prices and many sales. For the season of the year, offerings were exceptionally good, and the quality of the consignments was the best seen at these stables for some time. Buyers were on hand very early, and a large number of horses changed hands privately before the sale. Prices did not vary at all from those of the past few weeks. Many of the dealers reported that it was almost impossible to buy them in the country because of the exorbitant prices asked by the buyers and breeders. A number of out-of-town buyers were on hand and succeeded in filling their requirements. Some of them were:

J. O. Giroux, Mattawa, Ont., part carload; L. B. Stone, Headford, Ont.; J. Chesnut, Eglington, Ont.; Geo. Scott, Galt, Ont.; R. A. Stockdale, Eglington, Ont.

Some of the city buyers were: The T. Eaton Co., Thos. Brothers, P. A. Muegrove, J. Leeworthy, Henry Gaffney, Ltd., Orr Bros., J. J. McMillan, A. Stevens, E. G. Law, Arthur Bell, G. Nicholson, Ontario Lime Association, J. J. Walsh, L. Perry, H. Anishusky, Al. Reeves, Alex. Williamson, P. Piffen, R. Pritchard, C. Smith, R. Jepp, J. Peeler, C. R. Farrow.

Solway & Cohen, J. Drennan and others. There are still quite a number of horses on hand at this exchange for private sale, and the management report that they have received advices of several fresh consignments for their next auction sale, on Thursday, at 11 a.m.
