brought up by applications from Hern, Winn and Little was reinstated, as he satisfied the committee that he had nothing to do with London's deal. The application of Hern was refused, altho he put in evidence to compromise a lot of London's young men. Hern's declaration showed that he was paild for his services to London in the way of free schooling and for the first period at $7 per week. While he got it increased to $10, he declares that orders were given him by W. Mace for $7 and cashed by Frank Reid. Later they were cashed by Mr. Treblecock.

Frank Winn's application was laid over. His declaration showed he was given a ticket for London by H. M. Little at Montreal, and when he arrived in London he was received by Mr. Tillman.

Ashplant's application was also laid over till he put in further evidence. He stated that when he first saw Winn he was introduced to him by Mr. Mace as Campbell, Lindsay. These matters will be taken up by the new Executive Committee.

Advice from E. F. B. Johnston was taken by the association as to whether or not keeper.

According to a Muncle, Ind., despatch, Amos Rusie, the once famous baseball pitcher, is digging trenches for the American Water Works Company in that city for $1.50 a day. The pitcher formerly received $5000 a year, but tailed to make a showing last season and was dropped by the big teams. His last chance was given to him last spring by President Brush of the Ciacinnati Club, but he would not reform.

The match was won by the Science men by 15 to 11, the score at half-time being 11 to 0 in favor of the sawbones. The Meds won the toss and kicked south, and pressed the Science men all thru the half. Shortly after play had started, from a snapback Biggs went over for a try and converted it for the Meds. The play was then fairly even, till just before time, when Biggs got the ball, snapped out to him near S.P.S. line, and dropped a goal, making a total of 11 for his side. On changing over, the school had all the best of the second half, and shut their poponents out, while they scored 15 points, all tries but none were converted. Loring around the end. The next was secured by McLennan, who broke thru the line and ran about 25 yards. After this the Meds did better and held the Science men off till just about two minutes before time, when Madden, Gibson; quarter, Robertson; snaphaded, got the winning try. The teams:
