The following resolution was passed: Resolved, that the shareholders of the Canada Cycle and Motor Company, resident in Toronto, in meeting assembled this 27th day of January, 1902, place ourselves on record as follows:

1. That we express our intense dissatisfaction with the last annual statement, presented by the directors of this company to its shareholders, bristling as it does with admitted errors of judgment and lack of business sagacity on the part of those whose reputation in the community led many to expect different results.

2. That we express our dissatisfacture of the canada cycle and Motor Company, resident in Toronto, in meeting assembled this 27th day of January, 1902, place ourselves on record as follows:
