DOWN SHAFT TO DEATH.

Eight Employes in Shoe Company Meet Death in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 13 .- A crowd of gate to-night on the sixth floor of the Brown Shoe Company Building at 11thtreet and Washington-avenue, caused the gate to give way and 10 persons were plunged down the shaft. Six were taken out dead and the other, four serously injured, were hurried to the City Hospital. Two of the injured died soon after reaching the hospital without regaining consciousness. The employes were waiting for the elevator to take them down. The elevator was at the 7th floor when those on the sixth floor, eager to be first into the cage, began to push forward, breaking the gate, sending ten persons down the shaft.
