IMPORTANT MATTERS WILL BE DISCUSSED AT NATIONAL COUNCIL

Eight-Hour Day For Pupil Nurses and Minimum Wage Board For Women To Come Under Consideration.

Today the 25th annual meeting of the National Council of Women opens session in Regina, Sask., with Mrs. Gordon Wright representing London.

At this meeting matters of great importance will be brought forward. "Equal pay for equal work" is contained in a resolution which the Victoria council will bring up. Another vital matter will be the suggestion that a child welfare week be held throughout the Dominion of Canada, this to be brought in by the Victoria Local Council. London council will suggest the decoration of all mothers in the Dominion who have lost sons during the war.

"Made in Canada" Goods. The MacLeod local council wishes to bring in a resolution which, if it is successful, will increase the sale of made in Canada goods. This council says that if the objection is made to purchasing home-made goods, because they are not as cheap as those imported, the Women's Council should try to remedy the trouble. The suggestion will be made that correspondence be carried on with the Canadian trade commission with the object of ascertaining in what way they can reduce the cost of Canadian goods. The Toronto council will further suggest that a committee from the Women's Manufacturers' Association in an attempt to secure a better understanding between manufacturer and consumer as to quality and price of "made in Canada" goods.

Minimum Wage for Women. The Winnipeg council will ask that the national union the various provinces to create a minimum wage board for women, there being such a board in Manitoba, which has been most beneficial in raising women's wages.

The Ontario Women's Citizens' Association will bring forward the suggestion that no one in Canada be allowed to vote unless he or she has an adequate speaking and reading knowledge of the English language.

Victoria Women's Council will move that the women of Canada be given an opportunity to register at an early date in order that they may be able to vote at the next Dominion election. Mothers Co-Guardian of Children. Another matter to be brought up by the Ontario Women's Citizens' Association is the demand for legislation making mothers co-guardians of their children. The Canadian Suffrage Association will also suggest that the Federal Government be urged to remove all legal disabilities from children of unmarried parents.

A resolution on the designing of women's clothes will be brought up by the Moose Jaw council. In connection with war memorials, the Vancouver council suggests that these be made to include nurses, as well as soldiers, and the United Women of Alberta suggest that the best war memorial for the men would be their ample provision and care of their widows and children.

Welland local council will bring in a resolution advocating an eight-hour day for pupil nurses in hospital training schools. The Montreal council will ask for discussion of the subject of a distinctive Canadian flag.

Holiday Proposed. A perpetual, national or empire holiday for the day on which the peace proclamation is signed will be advocated by West Alberta. This council also suggests that recognition be given to the late Mrs. Fessenden of Hamilton, founder of Empire Day, by the placing of a tablet to her memory in the new Parliament buildings, Ottawa.

The single Tax Association will bring in a resolution to the effect that women be released from taxes on some annual revenue raised by collecting the annual rental value of land.

The Ontario Women's Association will bring in a resolution to the effect that the railway fares of delegates be pooled.

WINIFRED BLACK

Writes About "One Woman's Job."

Winifred Black

Young, not bad looking, not entirely stupid; a good husband, a comfortable home, two pretty children. You'd think those were all the ingredients for real happiness, wouldn't you?

Not so. The woman who is married and has these things is miserable indeed. She says her husband is a good business man, but not so good as she would like in his place, and she worries about it.

Oh, yes, he can't think to support her and the children. But that's not how much more she could earn, and it would be so easy, too—no breakfast to get in the morning, no dinner to fuss over at night, no curtains to hang, no "welcome" to put on the mat. Just a neat little business suit and a type-a-day long, and lunch on a restaurant down town, and office chums and office gossip and office politics—oh, it would be great!

How About Husband? So unloving, so unsatisfying to the soul! But, then, there are the children. What shall she do with them? She worries a good deal about it.

Oh, yes, the children are not good—they're mischievous and selfish and quarrelsome—and she hates to bother with them, and yet, what is her duty? What on earth is getting into all this?

Why can't they see that there's such a thing as right and wrong, and duty and honor?

How can they expect to take one job and get paid for it, and then go and get another job and get paid for that? Oh, yes, that's what it is—marriage and home-making, and child rearing and child training—it's a job, and a good, hard job, too, and it takes a woman that's a real woman to handle it.

Those children and that husband and the home are that woman's job—why doesn't she attend to it?

What right has a woman with such ideas as this to marry at all? Suppose her husband went to a factory to get a job and said, "I'll come here and work for you, and I expect good living wages, but I want you to understand this work at all. There's something else I'd rather be doing, and just as soon as I can I'm going to do it. I'm going to quit the factory."

That do you think of his chances of getting a job? Help her husband, by going down town to business with him and putting her children away in school somewhere.

She won't help her husband. She'll hinder him—no matter how clever she is.

What Will Happen? Her husband will help—but her husband she will hurt. She will hurt his pride and his respect, and his sense of responsibility. And the first thing she knows he'll be thinking within his heart, "Oh, well, she doesn't need me; she can take care of herself, and there is that dear little helpless acquaintance of mine, who's just dying for a home—I wonder if there's some way we can manage it, so that we'll all be happier."

Oh, yes, she is going to happen—maybe it should not, but it will. And the children? Oh, well, what are they, and what are they doing? They should trouble about them? They'll soon be old enough, poor things, to shift for themselves, anyhow.

Excellent Work of I. O. D. E. Among the Military Patients

Hospital Visiting Committee Reports at Cronyn Hall.

A meeting of the soldiers' comforts and military hospital visiting committee, I. O. D. E., took place in Cronyn Hall yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. J. B. McKillop, convenor in the chair. At this meeting it was decided to discontinue all hospital visiting until September, but to continue the Tuesday evening convicts at Tecumseh Barracks, making them as entertaining for the men as possible.

The report of the committee showed that during the month of May 55 wards had been visited, 25 girls and 19 friends doing the visiting. In this way 350 men and 76 in isolation were provided for the value of the articles taken to the hospitals being $31.70.

During May the Sir George Ross Chapter and the Abigail Ross Chapter, while the Overseas Chapter, Senator Coffee Chapter and No. 28 Nursing Division, gave concerts and dances there, thus giving the I. O. D. E. and associations working under it are doing excellent work in this way among the soldiers who are ill.

Daily Bible Question Club

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE UNIFORM LESSON FOR SUNDAY, JUNE 22, 1919.

ONE GOLDEN TEXT QUESTION. By Rev. F. S. Lindsay, D.D.

QUESTIONS FOR TODAY.

5. Verse 2.—What necessary moral prize is due to a man who has the gift of prophecy and has intuitive knowledge of mystery?

6. Why should any more necessary prize be accorded to a big man than to a little man?

7. If God gives a man the faith so he can remove a mountain and he at the same time is without love, what good is the faith to him?

Golden text—Now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love. 1 Cor. 13:13.

FAITH IS TRUSTFUL RELIANCE. Faith becomes an exact science to the thoughtful Christian, however. It is no longer a matter of chance, luck, or speculation, but it is a scientific certainty. Just as we know other things from experience, so we know that faith in God is simply a trustful reliance, that God does all things well; what has been, what is and what is to come we know will be in our highest interest. With such a faith, there is no room for doubt or fear, or misgiving, for just as we depend upon other well-known phenomena we depend upon God. Faith takes all regret out of lives. It makes everything turn to gold for us; there is no poverty of soul, no painful regret, for it is a rock of certainty upon which we build, and we know all is well.

Advertiser Patterns

A Pretty Summer Frock. 2816—This is a charming model, especially for slender figures. It is just the thing for evening, dainty, voile and crepe, and will require little trimming excepting a smart sash or belt of bright ribbon. The skirt is with collar of organdy or net edged with Valenciennes lace, and a sash of Chinese yellow or liberty red would be very attractive for this style.

The pattern is cut in four sizes, 14, 16, 18 and 20 years. Size 18 will require 6 1/2 yards of 27-inch material. The skirt measures about 2 yards at the foot, with plaits drawn out.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ross Mank of London are guests at the Sunset Hotel, Goderich.

Dr. Thomas Cuthbertson of Chicago paid a flying visit to the city on Sunday, when he was the guest of Mrs. Marshall, Central avenue.

Mrs. Cook of Chicago, Mrs. Chapman of Rainy River, and Mr. and Mrs. George MacEwan of Trochu Falls were in the city to attend the Nugent-Forbes wedding.

Dr. Peever, Rev. J. Holmes, Rev. W. H. Robinson, Rev. Louis Barber and Rev. W. J. Ashton were guests at Sunset Hotel, Goderich, during conference week.

A pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage, Thamesville, when Lillie, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Peters, was united in marriage to Lee Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Croton.

The Rev. Mr. Whitehall officiating. Miss Olive Peters, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Cameron Smith supported the groom. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for St. Thomas and Niagara Falls. On their return they will reside at the groom's farm near Croton.

One of the prettiest of June weddings took place at the home of Neil R. Gray, 338 St. James street, when his niece, Marguerite Gray Forbes, was united in marriage to E. Howell Nugent, accountant at the Canada Trust and Huron & Erie Corporation, this city, the Rev. James MacKay performing the ceremony.

The house was pretty with masses of spring flowers, and peonies forming the greater part of the decoration. At one end of the living-room, banked with white peonies, to which the bride and groom were seated, the bride and groom were seated. The bride was wearing a gown of ivory georgette crepe and carried a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas. She wore the gift of the groom, a handsome platinum barpin set with diamonds. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the families were present, about 35 in all.

After the ceremony the happy couple left for a trip up the lakes, the bride traveling in a serge tailored suit and had trimmed with plumes. They were the recipients of many handsome presents, among them a beautiful chest of silver, the gift of the groom's father, and a silver tea service from the Huron & Erie.

FLORENCE PATRIOTIC LEAGUE DISBANDED.

The spacious lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Currie was the scene of a unique event, when the members of the Women's Patriotic League, with their husbands and families, met for the purpose of disbanding, after their patriotic work during the war. Mrs. Jones, the president, was in the chair. The program consisted of a duet by Messrs. H. E. Forshee and G. H. Powell, both returned soldiers; a solo by H. Forshee, a solo by Miss Edna Webster, speeches by Rev. Mr. Jones and Rev. Mr. Streeter, together with readings.

After the preliminary program had ended all repaired to the nicely-seated lawn, when the boys, H. Forshee, G. Powell and Will Howell, were each presented with $25 in gold, the address and presentation being made by Mrs. Jones.

This was followed by a decoration ceremony, when Dr. Kelly decorated three mothers, Mrs. Lampman, Mrs. Fulcher and Mrs. Reeves, each of whom lost a son in the war.

At the close of the decoration ceremony Mrs. James Beatty, secretary, and Mrs. McCreary presented the president, Mrs. (Rev.) Jones with some old colony silverware, consisting of a berry spoon, cold meat fork, butter knife, pickle fork and half dozen knives and forks. Mrs. Jones has been a faithful president. In replying she did not fail to comment upon the success of the Patriotic League, placing all credit to the splendid co-operation of the women back of her.

At the close a beautiful supper was served to all on the lawn.

SHEPHERD W. M. S. The auxiliary of the W. M. S. of Shepherd invited the Florence and Hattie Auxiliaries to meet with them in a social way at the Shephard Methodist Church, when a very interesting and most instructive address was given by Miss Anna Martin of Victoria, B. C. She related some of her experiences as a missionary among the Chinese and Japanese in the Oriental home and school in Victoria, B. C. Miss Martin is a former resident of Euphemia and is very widely known. Mrs. Douglas, district organizer, was also present and presided over the meeting. Solos were rendered, and at the close of the program the Shephard women served refreshments, the Mission Band boys and girls acting as waiters. The church was beautifully decorated with pretty colored streamers and flowers.
