MONTREAL POLITICIANS NOW AWAIT THE CLIMAX

Two Cabinet Resignations Are Looked For—What They Think of Mr. Fyfe.

MONTREAL, March 27.—(Special).— It would be impossible to over-estimate the effect of the civil service commissioner's report upon the leaders of the Liberal party in this city, where the two ministers and the commissioners are so well and widely known.

Every one says that the findings of the commission are perfectly justifiable, but they add that it was a terrible political blunder to have the report brought down on the eve of a general election.

If they had known Tom Fyfe as well as he is known in Montreal, they would never have dreamed of appointing the ex-bank manager, for while he is as honest as the sun, he would not go an inch aside from his plain duty if the fate of all the Liberal ministers in the world was hanging in the balance.

It is so generally accepted that two of the ministers will go as a result of the report that La Patrie, with Hon.
R. Dandurand, as a director, and Hon. J. Brodeur, as a contributor, will soon resign and La Presse calls for a Montrealer as his successor. In fact the retirement of the minister of marine and the minister of militia is taken for granted, and the successor of the man from this province is being discussed all nation.

It is quite likely that either Dr. Beland or Mr. H. Gervais will get the portfolio from this province, when it becomes vacant. La Patrie says that it must be a Montreal man and this is supposed to be Mr. Gervais.

Who Carries the Bond?
Whenever there's a defalcation reported in the daily press the all-important question is: "Was the defaulter bonded?" If he was under a bond, then his employers are protected against all, or a part of their loss, according to the extent of the bonding.

The name of this company appears most frequently in connection with cases of this sort, because we do a large bonding business all over Canada. We carry risks, big and little, and bond responsible parties filling positions of trust in every part of the business. We extend our protection wherever required. Correspondence so-

Big Gathering of Shriners at London Ontario.

LONDON, March 27.—(Special).—The Conservatives tendered Hon. Adam Beck and A. C. Pratt an enthusiastic reception at the Conservative Club tonight. Mr. Beck and Mr. Pratt spoke briefly.

The dedication of Mocha Temple of the Mystic Shrine was performed tonight by East Imperial Potentate Harry Collins of Toronto, in the presence of 300 nobles, and 100 candidates were admitted.

Delegations were present from dozens of towns and cities in Western Ontario, and, in addition, Toronto, Detroit and Buffalo. The ceremony was a grand affair, at which Mr. Collins was presented with an address.

sessions yesterday was dismissed. Mr.
Madgett sued to restrain the defendants from using promissory notes given by him to them for $1400.

A mistake given in payment for a thrasher, and the action was brought because Mr. Madgett claimed that the defendant company had guaranteed to protect him from action by a rival company and had not done so.

were killed, one fatally injured and four slightly injured in the wreck of Erie train No. 13, known as the Wells Fargo Express, at Belvidere, near Hornell, this morning.

A mistake in orders led the express meet an eastbound freight on a down grade. Two persons are dead, a third fatally injured, and four slightly in-

ALDRICH CURRENCY BILL

PASSED IN U. S. SENATE

Important Clauses Providing for Emergency Circulation—Reserves and Circulation.

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 27.— The Aldrich currency bill was passed by the United States senate to-day by a vote of 45 to 16, in the main a party vote.

An interesting feature of the passage of the bill was a reiteration by Mr. Aldrich of his promise to bring in a bill for an investigation of the entire banking system of the country with a view to instituting reforms.

As passed the bill provides for not more than $600,000,000 of emergency currency to be issued by the national banks upon deposit by them of state, county and municipal bonds to be approved by the secretary of the treasury. The currency is to be issued with a view of securing an equitable distribution of the currency over the United States.

The bill provides that the unimpaired capital and surplus of banks in each state. Banks are to pay for this emergency circulation one-half of one per cent. a month during the first four months it is circulated, and afterwards three-quarters of one per cent. a month.

The bill provides that national banks shall pay not less than one per cent. on government funds deposited with them.

As amended to-day the bill carries an important change in banking laws relating to bank reserves. The amendment provides that 15 per cent. reserve required to be kept by banks not in reserve cities, four-fifths is to be kept in the vaults of the banks and one-fifth in government securities.

In addition to the bill, the unfair

AMATEURS DO WELL

IN A DOUBLE BILL

Plays Presented Under Auspices of Woman's Art Association With Great Success.

The histrionic part of last night's performances at the Massey Hall was worthy of very high praise, even when judged by a higher standard than that usually adopted for an amateur effort.

In truth, there are dozens of "high-class" players on the road which could not begin to compete with that organized by Douglas Paterson at the behest of the Woman's Art Association. The regulars of the troupe to elicit the best qualities of the performers, appreciative and intelligent, and in spite of the inclement night, most fashionable in attire and equipage.

"Deirdre," W. B. Yeats' poetical play, of which so much was expected, proved to be rather disappointing. Mr.
Yeats had a large audience, and the exquisite spirit of the Irish epic, the exquisite quality it effuses. He makes the gloomy and gloomy of the night totality in the dark as to what the pother is all about. To the student of Irish literature this, of course, is immense, and the play is a masterpiece.

YEAR'S GOOD WORK

BY WELCOME LEAGUE

First Annual Meeting—Marred Somewhat by Friction Among the Promoters.

Just about a year ago a man walked into The World editorial rooms late one night and told a "hard luck" story—that he was a stranger in an up-country, had been "taken in" by an strange farmer, had "tramped back to the city and was "oroked
