

men, almost and the
of the hold o predic

don could be hoped for from those who had devoted death, which alone could expiate her trespass; felicitating that his humanity would alleviate her sufferings, and soon ter their duration.

After a short conflict with his own mind, perceiving no of exultation or of escape either for the Lady or for himse ing moreover urged to expedite his work by two persons w who, impatient at his reluctance, threatened to exercise viol him, if he procrastinated; Ogilvie took out his Lancet, ope veins, and bled her to death in a short time. The gentleme ing carefully examined the body, in order to ascertain that no more; after expressing their satisfaction, offered him a p Zrchina, as a remuneration, but he declined all recompense requesting to be conveyed from a scene, on which he could fleet without horror. With this entreaty they complied, an ing again applied a bandage to his eyes, they led him down t staircase to the carriage. But it being narrow in descend steps, he contrived to leave on one or both of the walls, unpr by his conductors, the marks of his fingers, which were with blood. After observing precautions similar to those bringing him thither from his own house, he was conducte —and at parting, the two masques charged him, if he val own life never to divulge, and if possible, never to think on transaction. They added, that if he should embrace any m with a view to render it public, or to set on foot an enquiry he should be immolated to their revenge. Having finally d him at his own door, they drove off, leaving him to his refle To be Concluded in the next Calendar.

Price of the Nova-Scotia Calendar:
By the Dozen, 8s. ——— Single, 1s.

A. H. HOLLAND, Publisher
Corner of Duke and Water-Streets,

NS
317
.16
N