

A carter, kicking his horse, on Hope Hill, fined $5 and costs.

Two persons, cruelty to horse by beating and otherwise ill-treating, fined $5 and costs each.

A labourer, beating cows with a stick, fined $1 and costs.

A carter, driving a horse with sore under saddle, in St. Paul street, fined $1 and costs.

A carter, beating and ill-using horse, fined $2 and costs.

A carter, driving a horse with a sore shoulder, fined 25 cents and costs.

A carter, driving a horse with a sore shoulder, fined $5 and costs.

A carter, kicking his horse, on Angele Hill, fined $1 and costs.

A carter, beating his horse, in St George street, fined $1 and costs.

A carter, driving a horse with a sore shoulder, fined $5 and costs.

LEVIS.

Eleven farmers and drovers, having calves tied by the legs, fined $3 and costs each.

SUMMARY.

Cruelly beating horses with whip and whip handle.....	6
Ill-treating horses by kicking them.....	3
Having calves tied by the feet.....	11
Driving horses with sores in contact with the harness...	6
Beating horses and cows with sticks.....	5
For aiding and encouraging cock-fighting.....	10
Total.....	41

Thirty-four cases more were reported and entered in the Superintendent's book, but these parties were not prosecuted where the evidence seemed incomplete, or from other circumstances, and some were admonished and discharged.

The hills and steep inclines about the city, have been visited especially in the spring and fall by the Superintendent, who has devoted a large portion of his time to them, inspecting the drawing of heavy loads of firewood, (which is during the latter season carted in large quantities,) so that the horses might not be subjected to unnecessary cruelty: