

The Astronomical and Physical Society of Toronto.

PAPERS READ DURING 1890-91.

	PAGE.
Fractionating Process in Inorganic Chemistry.....	Richardson. 5
An Introduction to the use of the Spectroscope, I.....	Miller. 5
An Introduction to the use of the Spectroscope, II.....	Miller. 9
Coronal Photography in Full Sunshine.....	Shearmen. 11
Ortho-Chromatic Method in Photography.....	Howell. 15
Solar and Lunar Parallax.....	Ridout. 16
Observing the Solar Corona by Fluorescence.....	Shearmen. 18
Moving Matter, I.....	Elvins. 20
Astronomical Predictions.....	Lindsay. 22
Disappearance of Saturn's Rings.....	Morrison. 23
How our Moon found her Orbit.....	Phillips. 27
Rotation Period of Mercury and Venus.....	Kirkwood. 29
Constellation Study.....	Lumsden. 30
Astronomical Instruments used in Surveying.....	Abrey. 32
President's Annual Address.....	34

NOTE.—Authors are alone responsible for the views expressed, or for facts stated in the papers, or synopses of papers, in this Report.