GERMANS SCENT
ANOTHER PLOT TO
ENSNARE AMERICA

Of Opinion Armenian Atrocities
Protest to Sublime Porte is Threat at Berlin—"Kultur" at its Very Best

Berlin, Oct. 15.—The Armenian question between Turkey and America is being followed here with increasing interest, not only in official circles but in public discussions as well. It is believed in some quarters that the American protest to Turkey is really aimed at Germany, as it comes just at the time when General von Mackensen's army has begun a drive at Serbia. There is a tendency to regard the Armenian protests as hypocritical, while many Germans are convinced they are the result of a plot by the Allies to involve America in the world conflict. German opinion in general is voiced by George Bernhard, in the Vossische Zeitung, who writes: "The Armenian question is a purely theoretical discussion about humanity. We have battles to fight at present in order to insure our very existence. The political instinct of America's statesmen must tell them as much, especially as the all-around political situation today is very different from that of two months ago. The Quadruple Entente will, therefore, have just as little success with the stink bombs of hypocrisy and slander, which it now throws, as it has had until now in its fight with honorable arms on the battlefields of Western Europe."

made in England consciously for the purpose of creating new friction between the United States and Turkey, and thereby between the United States and Germany.

"Why become indignant over these questions? The Quadruple Entente does not believe that it can cause Germany any unpleasantness by this last means, which bears the stamp of desperation. We went a long way to meet the Americans in the Arabic affair. Just now far has not been authentically determined, as the ambassador's official report has not been received as yet.

"Should, contrary to expectation, the contents of Ambassador von Bernstorff's letter to Secretary Lansing prove to be as sinister as we have been considerably beyond the limit which many Germans believe endurable in our compromise."

"I desire to withhold final judgment but in any event it must be plainly stated today that the Arabic and Lusitania cases were matters that concerned the American people and the American President.

"The Armenian question is a purely theoretical discussion about humanity. We have battles to fight at present in order to insure our very existence. The political instinct of America's statesmen must tell them as much, especially as the all-around political situation today is very different from that of two months ago. The Quadruple Entente will, therefore, have just as little success with the stink bombs of hypocrisy and slander, which it now throws, as it has had until now in its fight with honorable arms on the battlefields of Western Europe."

JUNIORS' GOOD WORK.
The report of the work of Alexandra Circle, Soldiers' Comforts League among the juniors during the last week shows several more yards of pennies collected for comforts and necessities for the men at the front. Children collected yards of pennies as follows: Helen Logan, four yards; Amber Scribner, three; Mary Logan, Helen Walters, Vera Carlin, two; and Elsie Coleman, Percy Wilson, Helen Dunham, Grace Lingley, Weyman Walters, and Pearl Sears, one yard each.

NET RECEIPTS $186.10
The net receipts of the patriotic entertainment following the Loch Lomond sale of $186.10, included $88 from the cake, which brought $10 in a guessing contest and $23 when sold at auction; $82.25 from the bean guessing contest and $70 from the sale of tickets for the dance.

The annual Thanksgiving reunion of the Waterloo street Baptist church was held last evening and a splendid musical programme was carried out. The offering amounted to $109.

DIED IN BOSTON.
Friends in St. John will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Mary Dever in East Boston this week. She underwent an operation a few days ago, but it was not successful and her death resulted. She was the wife of Charles Dever, a former well known resident of North End, but who left here when quite a young man, going to the United States to live. Besides her husband, Mrs. Dever is survived by one son, Harry, and one daughter, Miss Helen, both at home. Sympathy will be extended to them in their bereavement.

Zepplin Victims
In the last Zepplin raid on London and the east coast there were 169 casualties, 55 killed and 114 injured. Of these fourteen killed and thirteen wounded were classified as soldiers. Several fires were started but there was no serious damage to military stores.

Fifty excellent prizes in the $5,000 patriotic drawing.

OF PERSECUTION OF ARMENIANS

Used to give me a lot of bother. When they were new they'd raise a crop of corns. When they got old they'd frown my feet with blisters. Seemed to "break down" inside before the sole gave out.

Then somebody told me to try Invictus Shoes—said they "cost a little and were worth three times as much as the cheap shoes I was wearing."

That man was a real friend and I pass the word along to you. My own feelings are that if there is a better pair of shoes than these I have on it must be another pair of Invictus. You can buy them anywhere in Canada—
