Making Automobile Pay Dividends in Canned Fruit

By Harry A. Stewart

A cheerful adventurous motorist crept up the cove road yesterday and camped in the walnut grove by the north or chard. I noticed the thin blue thread from his campfire waving lazily in the early morning sunshine and walked over to see.

He had parked the car by the grave spring, among the ferns, and was in a bit of a hurry. He was a double-bitted woodman, an axe with vigor and dexterity against the trunk of a lightning-blasted pine, adding to the neat pile of billets which lay by the fire jack. His wife was coaxing delicious odors out of a pan of flap-jacks and bacon. His old daughter (the one with the neat engagement ring) was invisible in the tent of balloons stretched between the car and the trunk of a big tree. His two boys, he informed me, were out picking raspberries for breakfast, and scolding small fruit possibilities of the region.

On sight of me he drove the axe into the wood, and first waving his hand on his khaki breeches, offered it to me, at the same time and simultaneously, as if to say, "I am not a motorist, I am a fruit picker." He then led me to the site of his camp, and I saw that he had sent them back home from the next post-office, full of blackberry jam, and I forgot the sugar.

"And, added the man of the party, taking up the theme, 'I see you have a great many cherries here more than you can use probably. I would like to buy some of them, on the tree. We'll go the picking.' I told them where they could get the supplies they wanted, and made them free of my cherry trees, for this year they are so full that we can't use them all, and there is no market for them here; we are thirty-two miles from the railroad and ten from the Lincoln Highway.

Get Off The Mapped Highway. This man is a merchant in a small way about seventy miles from here. They are on their annual vacation, and thrifty, they make vacation time fruit preserving time. Later in the fall they will make short dashes into byways for late fruits, peaches and apples and pears, and they expect to put up considerably more before the trip is over.

"We have been doing this for some years now," he said. "It used to be that when we went on our trip in the car we would stick to the map, following the line from one town to the next like a monk telling his beads and never skipping one. Then one day I had an urgent invitation to turn off the main road to visit a friend, and we did it. I was frightened and saw several physicians who, however, did not seem able to help me.

"At last a friend advised me to take 'Fruit-a-lives.' I did so and soon I felt some relief. I continued with 'Fruit-a-lives' and in a short time, the Constipation was banished. I felt no more pains or headache or the disagreeable sensations that follow dyspepsia. Now I am well, strong and vigorous."

Beautifully Curly, Wavy Hair—In Three Hours!

Girls, have you tried the silvery method of curling your hair? It's simple, easy, and gives you the most beautiful, natural-looking curls and waves within three hours—keeps the hair soft, silky or glossy—and nothing harmful or messy about it. The curls will last the longest time—in spite of heat, wind or dampness. You won't have to be continually fixing and fussing with loose, flying hair. It's foolish to singe and blister and scald your tresses with a hot curling iron—and altogether unnecessary now.

Liquid Silmerine is pleasant to use, being neither sticky nor greasy. Get a bottle from your druggist today, follow the simple directions—the first trial will make it your steadfast friend.

How to Lose Your Tan, Freckles or Wrinkles

A day's motoring, an afternoon on the tennis court or golf links, a sunbath on the beach or exposure on a water trip, often brings on a deep tan or vivid crimson, or, more perplexing still, a vigorous crop of freckles. A very necessary thing then is mercurized wax, which removes tan, redness or freckles quite easily. It literally peels off the affected skin—just a little at a time, so there's no hurt or inconvenience. As the skin comes off in almost invisible flakes, particles, no trace of the treatment is shown. Get an ounce of mercurized wax at your druggist's and use this nightly, as you would cold cream, washing it off mornings. In a week or so you will have an entirely new skin, beautifully clear, transparent and of a most delicate whiteness.

Winkles, so apt to form at this season, may be easily and quickly removed by bathing the face in a solution of powdered salicylic acid, once dissolved in water, one-half pint. This is not only a valuable astringent, but has a beneficial tonic effect also.

"DANDERINE"

HOLY GEE, MY HEAD FEELS GOOD TODAY!

Pain Over Eyes is Gone, Headache Cured, Catarrh Relieved!

This is the Common Experience of Those Who Breathe the Vapor of Catarrhazone

Remember this, Catarrh can never be cured or even relieved by a cough syrup, a spray, or tablet treatment. Trouble is these remedies slip quickly over the sore irritated membranes, drop into the stomach and do little else but harm digestion. It's different with "Catarrhazone"—you inhale it. Every breath sends healing balsams to the inflamed tissues. Tightness, soreness and inflammation are cured by healing pine essence. The cough dies away, throat is strengthened, hoarseness is inflamed. Nothing is so simple, so convenient, so certain to cure as Catarrhazone. The dollar bottle includes the inhaler, costs $4, and is guaranteed to cure. Small size 50c. trial size 25c. all dealers, or The Catarrhazone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Strange Ways of Some Rich Men

That possession of much of this world's goods is frequently attended by the weirdest eccentricities is amusingly illustrated by the following curious instances related by a London paper.

In Vienna there lived a wealthy man, a Pole of noble origin, occupying sumptuous apartments in the heart of the capital's fashionable quarter, who, when he wished to summon his servants, did so by means of huge calls. A favorite pastime of this eccentric was to drive a stage coach, attired like an ordinary driver of such a vehicle, wherever he might find aristocratic cars to be most numerous.

The Viennese asserted that while he spent a fortune each year upon his raiment, yet he was never clad in any except discarded garments of his valet. On one occasion the Pole astounded the guests at a ball by appearing in a costume of pure white, with the notable exception of shirt and tie, which were entirely black.

To complete the oddities, it may be added that when dining, which he invariably did alone at a table d'hôte, he reversed the usual order of things, beginning the meal with a dem-tasse and working backward to the soup.

It was not long ago that there died in an eastern European town a wealthy eccentric who, though he had never for years been outside the grounds surrounding his residence, was accustomed to boast each day that he had walked to certain towns, generally at a great distance from home. What he actually did was this:—Whenever he decided that it would be an excellent idea to visit a distant town, he ascertained its exact distance from his home and covered it on foot on a carefully measured walking track maintained on his premises for this purpose.

Sunken Eyes Brighten Quickly Health Returns

In a Message to Ailing Women Doctor Hamilton Tells How It Is Done

In speaking of the ills from which women suffer, Dr. Hamilton points out that nine out of every ten women are by nature inclined to habitual constipation. Harsh purgatives are resorted to, which only intensify the trouble. Although not generally known, it is a compensated condition of the bowels that causes half the sickness and tired weariness with which all womanhood is so familiar. It was after long years of study that Dr. Hamilton perfected the pills which have been of such marvellous benefit to women the world over. In his pills of Mandrake and Butternut every sufferer will find an absolute specific for constipation, sick headache and biliousness. It is safe to say that Dr. Hamilton's Pills bring better health and keep the system in a more vigorous condition than any other medicine ever discovered. At all dealers, in 50c. boxes.

his desk and forget all about it. One day Granville Barker came to him, eager for a one-act play. Barker said he had nothing on or in hand.

"Suppose I take a look around," said Barker, who was an intimate friend. The playwright offered no protest while his visitor rummaged his desk. Suddenly Barker fished out a bundle of closely-written sheets, saying:

"What is this?"

"Barker scanned them for a few moments with a puzzled expression. He sometimes finds it difficult to read his own handwriting. Then he said: 'It's a little one-act play I wrote when I had malaria!'"

"In this way 'The Twelve Pound Look' was discovered and produced."
