McCAVOUR AND HIS COMPANION BACK IN SAFETY

Good News For Anxious Relatives And Friends Here—Missing on Hunting Trip

Fears for the safety of Stewart McCavour, telegraph operator at St. Francis, on the Bangor & Annapolis railway, were set at rest today upon receipt of a message to the effect that he and his companion, Pete Claire, an experienced woodsman, had returned home without injury or accident. Mr. McCavour belongs to Lorneville and has relatives in this city, among whom is Percy McCavour, a brother, who left this morning and had gone as far as McAdam on his way to St. Francis to aid in the search when he received the joyful news that his brother had returned.

MISS ELKIN BRIDE OF HAROLD WILSON; AFTERNOON WEDDING

Daughter of R. C. Elkin and Son of Hon. J. E. Wilson Married by Rev. D. Hutchinson

A fashionable nuptial event was solemnized this afternoon at three o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Elkin, 141 Douglas avenue, when their daughter, Miss Mabel Taber Elkin, was given in marriage by her father to J. Harold Wilson, son of Hon. John E. and Mrs. Wilson of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. Hutchinson in the presence of about forty invited guests, mostly immediate relatives and close friends. The house was beautifully decorated in a most appealing color scheme, the drawing-room in yellow and white, the dining-room in pink and green and white, with sweet peas, potted ferns and rowan berries, also prominent in the decorative arrangement of the various rooms.

LOCAL NEWS

THE BATTLE LINE. S. S. "Himera," Captain Bennett, for Boston, sailed from Hamburg today.

SAVINGS RETURNS. The returns at Dominion Savings Bank in September were—Deposits, $78,922.35; withdrawals, $105,692.34.

POLICE REPORTS. The police have reported James McKinney for allowing his horse to run at large in Bentley street. Last week he was in the police court on a like charge and was allowed to go with a fine of $4 standing.

COMPLAIN OF SIDEWALK. There is complaint that the sidewalk of Main street, opposite the street car sheds has been left unfinished and cannot be used, people having to take the middle of the street in passing there.

BURIED TODAY. The funeral of William Strachan took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late home in Harding street, Fairville. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Townshend and interment was in Greenwood.

ANOTHER ALARM. The Bank of New Brunswick is not to be the only institution of its kind which has installed an up-to-date burglar alarm, for the dominion government savings bank in Princess street is placing an electrical apparatus of this nature in position about the large vault.

KING SQUARE LIGHTS. The colored lights with which the King Square has been illuminated all summer were removed this morning and hereafter the square will be lighted only by arc lamps. The lights were a great feature during the summer, and it is to be hoped that they will be placed there again next summer.

KING AND CHARLOTTE. The work of laying the new asphalt roadway in Charlotte street is about completed, and the street now presents a very attractive appearance. Workmen are making the work in King street to completion, and it is expected that the entire job will be finished by the end of the present week.

GAVE HER SUIT-CASE. Friends of Miss Elizabeth Quigg gathered last evening at her home in Fairville on the eve of her departure for Boston, and made her the recipient of a nice leather suit-case. She was taken greatly by surprise. F. A. Hamilton made the presentation. Refreshments were served, dancing and games enjoyed, and a good time spent by all. Miss Quigg will leave tonight for Boston.

ST. DAVID'S Y. P. A. At the annual meeting of the Young People's Association of St. David's church, which was held last evening, a committee consisting of Mrs. G. W. Campbell, Miss Sophie Lawson, F. I. Archibald, L. G. Sinclair and W. E. Fraser, was appointed to report as a nominating committee and also to report on a tentative programme for the winter, at a meeting which will be held on Wednesday evening, October 9.

BREAK-DOWN. Traffic was held up this morning in Main street near Acadia for a time until a sloven loaded with barrels of lime was relieved of its freight. The sloven had been proceeding down Main street about half-past eight o'clock when it caught in the car tracks and one of the fore wheels went over an embankment of about four feet where excavating in sewerage work is in progress. One of the horses was dangerously near going over.

THE POLICE COURT. A colored man and a white woman were arraigned in the police court this morning on the charge of drunkenness. They both pleaded guilty and were fined $8 or two months in jail each. One other prisoner, charged with drunkenness, was fined $6 or ten days in jail, and another was remanded.

Louis Yatzman, charged with allowing his cow to run at large in Cranston avenue and damaging property belonging to Adam McIntyre, was fined $2 and told that he would have to have the damaged property repaired.
