

LABOR'S FUNCTION

The Staunch Craft Of Labor Outrides The Squalls

HEAVE Ho! The Good Craft of Organized Labor is not going to be split on the Rocks of Foreign Frenzy. Throw away the Blue Binoculars of the Pessimist and see how bravely she rides the Gale. There are Heavy Squalls. There is a Whirlwind of Alien Oratory Raging from the far East. Foreign Pirates have attempted to board and scuttle the Ship, but they were detected and dealt with in time.

HEAVE Ho! The Crew is the True and Tried Crew of Organized Labor, sailing by the Time-Tested Compass of Co-Operation. Heave Ho! All together on the Ropes of Brotherhood, Help Steady the Sails agitated by the Gales of Violent Oratory. Everybody give a Hand and have Confidence that the Turbulent Seas can be passed in safety. Blue Ideas, Blue Faces, Blue Speeches are bad and depressing. There is nothing so inspiring, so invigorating and so helpful as Confidence, Optimism and Team Work. Let us be Optimistic Together, -- let us work together and we shall conquer the Turbulent Seas of Industrial Unrest together.

THE Harbor of Harmony is in Sight. Heave Ho!
