THE LIBERAL PARTY

LEADER'S SPEECH WILL INTENSIFY DISCORD

The Boers in Europe Deny That Peace Negotiations Are Now in Progress.

London, Jan. 18 .- The most important event of the reassembling of parliament was undoubtedly the emphatic declaration of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman the Liberal leader in the House of Commons, that the Liberal party is still committed to Home Rule. This was so utterly at variance with Lord Resebery's Chesterfield speech that it was taken to completely nullify the other passages of Sir Henry's opening speech in which he endeavored to conciliate the Rosebery

The Spectator says this re-nailing of the Home Rule flag to the Liberal mast is a new and violent repudiation of the Imperialist wing. Other quarters have taken the Home Rule matter as a the Mexican one was first detected in man further invited Lord Cranborne, Bay mud flats, for which purpose Mr. de facto bid for the support of the Irish parliamentary party. But this does not appear to be a probable contingency, as John Redmond and other leaders of the Nationalists have declared and proved it to be their intention of fighting the Home Rule battle unhampered by porting Sir Henry Bannerman when the occasion suits them. Lord Wolseley is busily engaged on his D. Mann and J. A. Greenshields Coming military history. He has nearly com pleted the volume describing Napoleon's campaign of 1796, Lord Wolseley also writing his own memoirs at the conclusion of which he intends to again
