

Testimony from Druggists.

Daniel Zimmerman, Druggist, of Lynneville, Ind., has the past year sold many dozens of Allen's Lung Balsam. He says he has "many remedies good for an ordinary cold; but for all obstinate cases of cough or lung fever, Allen's Lung Balsam is the remedy, and the sure one."

Joseph Brotherson, Druggist, writes from Sharon, Henry County, Ill., and says, "Allen's Lung Balsam takes well; and in no case have I known it to fail of the cure that it is recommended for."

Mr. W. A. Peterson, Ovid, Clinton County, Mich., informs us, May 3, 1866, that he had been attended by physicians, without much relief. They pronounced his case consumption. Getting no permanent relief, he commenced using Allen's Lung Balsam, and in two weeks was entirely relieved. This is only one of the many cases of consumption which baffled the skill of the doctors, but yielded to the intrinsic merits of Allen's Lung Balsam.

MESSRS. J. N. HARRIS & Co., CINCINNATI, O.

Gents,—Inclosed I hand you Mr. Taylor's letter,—his willing testimony to the great merits of Allen's Lung Balsam. It has proved beneficial in every case where I have sold it. It has a reputation in this vicinity beyond all other cough medicines, and large increasing demand for it.

Respectfully, WM. T. SNOW, Druggist.

WORTHINGTON, OHIO, May 22, 1866.

Mr. Wm. T. Snow.

Dear Sir,—I bear willing testimony to the sterling merits of Allen's Lung Balsam for all Pulmonary troubles. I have had a very distressing cough, and it gave me immediate relief and permanent benefit. I have had a severe attack of Pleurisy, and by its aid was relieved and cured. I am satisfied that all that is necessary to convince any one of its merits, would only be to make a trial of it; and I cheerfully recommend it to all whose condition demands any thing of this nature, asking for it an impartial trial, and believing they will, and hoping they may be benefited as much as I was myself.

Delicious Bread—One tumblerful of good rice flour, one teacupful of wheat flour, one teaspoonful and a half of cream of tartar stirred in, one large spoonful of butter cut up very finely, a little salt, one egg well beaten, and one teaspoonful of soda dissolved in a large teacup of new milk; mix these well together, and bake in a pan like pound cake. Serve hot for tea or breakfast.

Receipt for Corn Bread.—One quart of coarse corn meal, one quart sweet milk, one even teaspoon soda, two even teaspoons cream of tartar, four eggs well beaten (two will do), a piece of butter the size of a walnut, and a little salt; bake with a quick heat, and it will be as light as sponge cake. But remember you cannot make good light corn bread with fine meal; it must be ground coarse.
