TUDIES IN THE OLD TESTAMENT. -- GENESIS

op VIII. Feb. 30. Gen. 18 : 23-33 ABRAHAM PLEADING FOR SODOM.

In wrath remember mercy.-Hab. 3: 2.

In wrath remember mercy.—Hab. 3: 2.

I. The Three Heaventy Vibitants.—
One day Abraham, then about 99 years old, was sitting in his test door in the heat of the day, when suddenly, looking up, he aw three strangers near him. He immediately went to them and welcomed them in the Oriental manner, and entertained them with the utmost hospitality. It was not long before he perceived, by what they said and did, that they were angels, and one of them was no less than Jehovah himself, in bodily form, the God who had, in some way, appeared to him five times before.

II. The THERATENED PUNISHMENT.—When the three men went away from Abraham's tent, he accompanied them a short distance on their way toward Sodom, say was the ensutom of Oriental hospitality. Two went on; but the third, the angel of the Lord, remained behind, and revealed to Abraham what he proposed to do to Sodom had the cities of the plain. Their wicaceiness was so great that they must be destroyed. Such vile cities would contaminate and corrupt the rang. The cancernate of the control of

He must now let the cause rest with God alone.

But note (1) That his prayer was an awered, though not in the way Abraham expected. The 'richtrous were delivered from the city. (2) We may be sure that God will do what ighest and most fitted to secure the universell good. (3) That our request shall be granted, even to our utmost wish, if it is within the limits of moral possibility. (4) That we have discharged our own conscience Said unburdreded our soul. (3) Our prayers ultimately bring our souls to the true position of repose, in which we are resigned to the will of God.

The unprecedented sale of Bosche's German Syrup within a few years, has astonished the world. Its without doubt the safets and best remedy over discovered to the safets and best remedy over discovered to the safets and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by Physicians, as it does not dry up a Cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purels healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It, is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cts., large bottles.

have a chair so handy," said her father to the boys. And when they explained that they were using it for a sleed, he said, with a si sificant nod or his bead, "Your sleed, was it? Well, I shall be surprised if my shop does not turn you out a better sleed than that, just by way of thanks for your kindness."

"But then, wasn't it good that it was only the old chair that we had to day? as the old that they want to be story to Aunt Barbara thome. "Oh, Auntie, I had the nicest kind of a time!" "I believe you did," answered Aunt Barbara, smiling, "for a brave, sunny spirit that never frets over what it has not, but always makes the best of what it has where it is, is sure to have n good time.
