DEMANDS IN REFERENCE TO THE FUTURE.

The mission field is widening in every direction. Three additional missionaries are required for the Northern Counties, making five for the North, and one at least for each of the other Counties, viz.: Westmorland, Albert, King's, St. John, Queen's, Sunbury, York, Carleton, Victoria, and Charlotte. In fact, we should have from fifteen to twenty missionaries constantly in this Home field. Then the great Foreign field cannot be neglected by us without subjugating ourselves to the charge, by the great Head of the Church, of fearful delinquency.

The demands for ministerial culture are increasingly pressing every day. The denomination should have at least ten young men at our Educational Institutions, studying with special reference to the Christian ministry. Men of good common sense, acceptable speaking talents, of undoubted piety, and giving satisfactory evidence that they are called by the Head of the Church to consecrate themselves to this great work, are the kind of men wanted.
