GOOD SHOOTING RESULTS AT CHARLOTTE COUNTY MEET

St. Andrews, Sept. 9.—The Charlotte county Rifle Association observed a day with a match at the Bartlett range. There was an unusually large number in attendance, there being in all sixty competitors in the various matches, thirty-two of whom took part in the county match, and it was without doubt, one of the best and most successful matches ever held in this county. There was some exceptionally good shooting, some splendid scores being made. The excellent work of Lieutenant G. Stuart Grimmer, (28th New Brunswick Dragoons), being the feature of the day. Lieutenant Grimmer won the challenge cup presented by Lieutenant Colonel T. G. Loggie, open to all members of the association, with the magnificent score of ninety-six, and he also won a possible 105. In this match, Capt. E. A. Smith came second, with a score of ninety-six, and H. H. Bartlett third, score ninety-five. Lieutenant Grimmer also won a beautiful cup, presented by the ladies of St. Andrews and Bayville, for the best score from the five hundred yard range. His score being perfect (seven bull's eyes in seven shots). This cup was presented by Mrs. E. A. Smith.

In the volunteer match, open to all volunteers (28th New Brunswick Dragoons), for active service, the prize donated by Lieutenant H. S. Everett, was won by T. Hatt, J. Thompson, second, F. Duggan, third, J. Black fourth.

The tyro match, open to those who had never won a prize, was won by H. Lawrence, score eighty-three.

A special cup, presented by T. A. Hart, M. P., as a prize for the competitor making the highest score, who had never won a first prize in any previous competition, was awarded to Dr. J. F. Worrell, on a score of eighty-nine.

The novice match, open to those who had never shot before, was won by L. H. Bartlett, A. Hannay, second, F. Rankine third.

Last but not least, the ladies' match was won by Mrs. R. A. Clark, who handled the rifle in a way that made many of the men sit up and take notice.

Many ladies took advantage of the day's outing, and graced the occasion with their presence, and to them be many thanks, not only for the splendid refreshment furnished at the noon hour, but for the active interest and enthusiasm with which they entered into the day's sport, and contributed in a large measure to its success.

At the close of the match, Judge Cockburn, with a few pleasing and appropriate remarks, presented the prizes to the successful competitors, each of whom was justly cheered as he stepped forward, after which a vote of thanks was extended to the ladies, moved by D. C. Rollins, seconded by Dr. Worrell; also a vote of thanks, moved by Capt. E. A. Smith, seconded by R. D. Rigby, to the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bartlett, who did everything in their power to accommodate the crowd, and make the day a success. Their home and property were thrown open to the use of the association, and too much cannot be said of the kindness and hospitality received at their hands.

Three rousing cheers for the King were given at the close.

The following committee was in charge: Range officer, H. H. Bartlett, assistant range officer and secretary, D. C. Rollins, match committee, E. A. Clark, M. N. Cockburn, H. H. Bartlett, Lieutenant H. S. Everett. Scorers: Lieutenant G. S. Grimmer, A. Thurber, R. Worrell, N. E. Fortune, Dr. Worrell, A. Mears.
