By H. W. Longfellow The streets are silent. The dark houses seem Like sepulchres, in which sleepers lie Wrapped in their shrouds, and for the mome wrapped in their shrouse, and to be dead.

The ismps are all extinguished; only one Burns stendily, and from the door its light Lies like a shining gate across the street, He waits for me. Ah, should this be at last The long-expected Christ! I see him there, Sitting alone, deep buried in his thought, As if the weight of all the world were resting Upon him, and this bowed him down. From 'The Divine Tragedy.

One-half of the County fund is to be apportioned and paid semi annually.

No public moneys will be received by Districts which fail to establish Schools under the Act. It will be observed that the amount of Provincial and County moneys to be expended in any District in aid of Schools will depend almost exclusively upon local exertion, or the direct efforts made by the people of the several Districts in maintaining their own Schools. The sum to be received by the Teacher from the Province is definite, but the exact amount that will be received by the Trustees from the County Fund on account of the average attendance of pupils, cannot be known at the time of the School meeting. The meeting should, therefore, be careful in voting its estimates to authorize a sum amply sufficient to enable the Trustees to meet the liabilities of the School year. Any balance remaining in the hands of the Trustees, is, of course, to be carried to the credit of the next School year, while any deficit arising from an authorized expenditure may be carried forward and provided for in the settimates of the following year.

RATES OF ADVERTISING. THE DAILY TRIBUNE will unite, when requested, with the other City Newspapers in treating all Advertising as "transient: " that is, it will regard with favor the abolition of agreements for advertising "by the year." The latter practice has gone out of fashion in all well managed newspaper offices; and being a most unjust arrangement, both for the Newspaper and a majority of the Advertisers, should have ceased to exist in this City many years ago. Such a step might place the TRIBUNE at a disadvantage, for a time, in the race with its older and more vigorous Daily competitors, such as the Telegraph and Journal, Globe, and Morning News; L. it would establish a just principle, and, in the end, prove advantageous both to the Advertising Public and the Press. Until a change of the character proposed, however, be consummated, the rates for Advertisements in THE DAILY TRIBUNE will
