

MANUFACTURES OF THE MISPECK MILLS, - - St. John, N. B.

ALL WOOL GOODS, viz: HEAVY AND LIGHT GREY CLOTH; HEAVY AND LIGHT BROWN CLOTH; HEAVY GREY FLANNEL; HEAVY SCARLET FLANNEL; Heavy Grey Blankets.

FIRST CLASS COTTON WARPS. The above named Seasonable Goods are all of SUPERIOR QUALITY, manufactured from the very best materials, and warranted to give satisfaction.

J. L. WOODWORTH, Agent. Sep 11-1904

Steamer "Nyanza," from London: We are now receiving by the above 33 Packages of

LONDON, PARIS AND BERLIN GOODS!

IN MILLINERY, RIBBONS, LACES, MANTLES and MANTLE CLOTHS, SHAWLS, KNITTED GOODS, LADIES' FELT and STRAW HATS, DRESS GOODS, FLOWERS, &c.

At Wholesale Only. Terms as liberal, prices as low, as any house in the Dominion.

EVERITT & BUTLER, Wholesale Warerooms 55 and 57 King Street. Sep 23 216

The Daily Tribune. (From the Fall Mail Gazette, Sept. 10.)

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 28, 1902.

Mr. Melbourne McLeod has assumed the Business Management of THE DAILY TRIBUNE, and he alone is authorized to make contracts, receive and pay monies, and transact business in any way connected with its finances.

Our Pacific Railway. At the last session of Parliament Government took very large discretionary powers in the matter of letting the contract for building the Pacific Railway.

Since the adjournment of Parliament the public has heard very little concerning the tenders of the rival Companies, but we have had rumors from Ottawa to the effect that the Inter-oceanic Company, led by Senator Macpherson, had the inside track.

The problem of how to reach Manitoba and the fertile prairie lands of our future wheat-raising province, and the further question of the probable cost of transport, must, we think, seriously disturb the peace of mind of intending emigrants.

West have the choice of two routes, one lying solely through our own territory, either by way of the United States, entering Canada from Minnesota State on the south.

This amalgamation is understood to have taken place, and the Cabinet meeting that began in Ottawa Tuesday is known to be for the settlement of the matter.

(From the New York Sun.) An Involuntary Orangeman.

THE FUNNIEST SUIT EVER INSTITUTED IN THE SUPREME COURT—DAY & BROS. EXTENDING THEIR BUSINESS—THE DOWNSIDE LIVING.

Mr. Henry Downes is a mineral water manufacturer at 402 and 406 East Twenty-fifth street.

During the past two years Downes's business unaccountably but steadily fell off. He employs eight or ten wagons to serve his waters.

Mr. Downes expressed his partiality for Greeley, and said he had always been a Democrat, and that he would vote for him.

Mr. Downes reflected a moment. He was an Orangeman, and he had been so since he was a boy.

It will be remembered by many of our readers that some years since an affair occurred in the lower hot springs district.

It was one of the most extraordinary cases of the kind that has ever occurred in the history of the lower hot springs district.

A Paris correspondent writes as follows: "Father Hyacinthe's example will be followed, it would appear, by a large number of French priests, who, the Paris states, are going to renounce publicly their vows of celibacy."

Mr. Downes hastened in a rage to the law office of Brown, Spillings & Gilroy, and accordingly on Thursday a suit was filed in the Supreme Court against Mr. James P. Day, in which the damages are laid at $100,000.

—A steam catamaran arrived at New York, Sunday, from Buffalo with a full freight via the Erie canal, in five days less time than by the usual horse locomotion.

The Castle of Pau.

In the Lower Pyrenees, almost on the confines of France and Spain, is the "City of Pau," which, since its birth in the tenth century, has more than once been identified with illustrious royal personages.

It had been a favorite retreat of Napoleon III. In the summer months and it was used by the Emperor as a place of repose.

—A South Carolina girl of 19 now comes forward with a story to tell and results to show. With the assistance of a negro girl she has cultivated 22 acres of cotton and some other crops, and will be able to sell 18 bales of cotton, six of which she has already sent to market.

—The marriage of two dwarfs was the exciting event in Springfield, O., last month. The bridegroom, Joseph Laffell, is 38 years old, 46 inches high, and weighs 35 pounds.

—Chicago thieves exhibit an undoubted persistence in the pursuit of their calling, which is probably nowhere else in the world.

—The "New York" arrived at Eastport at noon to-day, and is due here about six o'clock this evening.

—The attention of the Corporation has, on more than one occasion, been drawn to the King Street sewer, which empties its contents into the head of the slip.

—The late peace meetings held in this city have had a decided effect on the drunkards both in the city and Portland.

MISCELLANEOUS.

—The Savage Club, London, recently entertained Stanley, but it is quite likely that he got enough of that entertainment on his way to and from Uji.

—Mrs. Mary Francis Wade, dress maker of Orange Co., N. Y., has sent a man who had been summoned out of church school his antagonist dead.

—A Detroit man, supposing it was the proper thing to do, laid a bet on the horse race at the annual lunch of one of his own children, dined a day or two later on his wife, and at last tasted the calve of the man himself, when he thought best to shoot him.

—A Detroit man, supposing it was the proper thing to do, laid a bet on the horse race at the annual lunch of one of his own children, dined a day or two later on his wife, and at last tasted the calve of the man himself, when he thought best to shoot him.

—A Detroit man, supposing it was the proper thing to do, laid a bet on the horse race at the annual lunch of one of his own children, dined a day or two later on his wife, and at last tasted the calve of the man himself, when he thought best to shoot him.

—A Detroit man, supposing it was the proper thing to do, laid a bet on the horse race at the annual lunch of one of his own children, dined a day or two later on his wife, and at last tasted the calve of the man himself, when he thought best to shoot him.

—A Detroit man, supposing it was the proper thing to do, laid a bet on the horse race at the annual lunch of one of his own children, dined a day or two later on his wife, and at last tasted the calve of the man himself, when he thought best to shoot him.

—A Detroit man, supposing it was the proper thing to do, laid a bet on the horse race at the annual lunch of one of his own children, dined a day or two later on his wife, and at last tasted the calve of the man himself, when he thought best to shoot him.

—A Detroit man, supposing it was the proper thing to do, laid a bet on the horse race at the annual lunch of one of his own children, dined a day or two later on his wife, and at last tasted the calve of the man himself, when he thought best to shoot him.

Horace Greely is now out West on a managing tour. He appears to pretty good advantage on a "stump," and, judging from the following extract from a speech recently made in Columbus, Ohio,

Everything I have seen and heard since I crossed the mountains cheers and encourages me. I have faith in the good people of Indiana, and I do not believe that they can be bullied out of their convictions, and I am quite certain that they cannot be bought.

—A remarkable instance of the high honor which governs the intercourse of thieves with each other has been brought to light at the present Middlesex sessions.

—A remarkable instance of the high honor which governs the intercourse of thieves with each other has been brought to light at the present Middlesex sessions.

—A remarkable instance of the high honor which governs the intercourse of thieves with each other has been brought to light at the present Middlesex sessions.

—A remarkable instance of the high honor which governs the intercourse of thieves with each other has been brought to light at the present Middlesex sessions.

—A remarkable instance of the high honor which governs the intercourse of thieves with each other has been brought to light at the present Middlesex sessions.

—A remarkable instance of the high honor which governs the intercourse of thieves with each other has been brought to light at the present Middlesex sessions.

Flora Myers Theatre.

The Lyceum was well filled last evening to witness the production of "Jartine," the pride of the 14th, in which Marietta Ravel takes the leading characters.

—These who have not yet had the pleasure of witnessing the fine acting of Miss Ravel should not lose the present opportunity.

—These who have not yet had the pleasure of witnessing the fine acting of Miss Ravel should not lose the present opportunity.

—These who have not yet had the pleasure of witnessing the fine acting of Miss Ravel should not lose the present opportunity.

—These who have not yet had the pleasure of witnessing the fine acting of Miss Ravel should not lose the present opportunity.

—These who have not yet had the pleasure of witnessing the fine acting of Miss Ravel should not lose the present opportunity.

—These who have not yet had the pleasure of witnessing the fine acting of Miss Ravel should not lose the present opportunity.

—These who have not yet had the pleasure of witnessing the fine acting of Miss Ravel should not lose the present opportunity.

LOCALS.

The Excellencies the Governor General and the Countess of Dufferin met with a very heavy reception at Quebec on the 23rd inst.

The "New York" arrived at Eastport at noon to-day, and is due here about six o'clock this evening.

The attention of the Corporation has, on more than one occasion, been drawn to the King Street sewer, which empties its contents into the head of the slip.

The late peace meetings held in this city have had a decided effect on the drunkards both in the city and Portland.

The late peace meetings held in this city have had a decided effect on the drunkards both in the city and Portland.

The late peace meetings held in this city have had a decided effect on the drunkards both in the city and Portland.

The late peace meetings held in this city have had a decided effect on the drunkards both in the city and Portland.

The late peace meetings held in this city have had a decided effect on the drunkards both in the city and Portland.