OH NO! If blue birds bloomed like flowers in a row, And never could make a sound, How would the daisies and violets know When to come out of the ground!

They would wait and wait the seasons round;

Never a flower could on earth be found.

And what would birds and butterflies do If the flowers had wings to fly; Why birds and blossoms, and lutterflies too, Would stay far up in the sky; And then the people would droop and sigh, And all the children on earth would cry. St. Nicholas for November

NOTES AND NEWS.

The editor of a Kentucky paper was hrown into a pond by a prize-fighter, and is said to have swallowed some water for the first time since his boyhood. One of the intelligent and handsome young ladies of Virginia City, Nevada, eloped with a Piute Indian, recently. As she left her best scalp behind her parents are not disposed to feel worried. Au Iowaschoolmistress had her toe torn off by lightning the other day. She mere ly remarked that it was an untoeard per mance on the part of the lightning, and kept on with her spelling class. The Chicago Times says: "Probably the poorest paid and most illiterate set of iserable devils in the newspaper busiess in the country are those who are unddled together in the editorial rooms of the Evening Journal." The member of the Nebraska Legisla ture who recently joined Ned Buntline's combination has returned home to his e. He thinks there is more money in

A Western newspaper, wishing to do he handsome thing by the local doctor, ecently made the following announce ment: "Dr. Crawford was called, but under his prompt and skilful treatment the young man died Wednesday afternoon." We don't know what the doctor said to this; but if the editor of that newspaper. this; but if the editor of that newspaper is taken sick we advise him not to call in

An escape from jail is difficult or easy ccording to circumstances. At Keene, N.H., we wouldn't say that the stronghold ON & HAMLIN'S of justice would be formidable to a Baron

Trenck. Patrick Murphy and James Barry, confined therein, escaped last week. And how do you think they did tt? Why, by reaching through the grate and simply unlocking the door, the key having been kindly left in the lock by the jailer, who was whitewashing the prisoner's quarters. He will now need a little whitewashing himself.

One of the things you read of recently ccurred in Wilmington, Del. A man as detected hurrying away from a outcher's stall with a steak which he had tolen under his coat. A policeman followed him to his home, and peeping at less than Manafacturer's prices, being Bankrupt Stock that must be sold this month. stolen under his coat. A policeman followed him to his home, and peeping through the window, saw him give the steak to his children, who devoured it raw. Upon report of this being made to the butcher, his bosom so glowed with benevolent sympath, that instead of prosecuting, he sent the starving family a large basket of meat and a little cash to buy wood to cook it.

A veritable phenomenon of total abstinence is Ezekiel Kellogg of Robinston who is one hundred years old less eight. For most of his life he has been in the For most of his life he has been in the habit of taking something comfortable at 11 o'clock in the foreneon — what that something is we need not mention. The veteran has firmly resolved that it shall never more enter his system. He sees a serpent coiled within, and fears that the creature may bring him to an untimely grave. He is also supposed to be the only man of his age who can milk ten cows before breakfast.

We cannot be too eareful how we play with the English language. One day this week a married lady of this city, while BOOTS & SHOES admiring the falls from the Suspension bridge, remarked, "Isn't that dam nice?" The autobiography of John Stuart Mill has just been published in London, and the critics predict that none of Mill's works has produced such a storm of dis-cussion as that which is sure to be awak-ened by this remarkable book.
