Asiatic Nations Are Bitter

coming a white man's property.
"This cannot be tolerated," says this paper; "the demand for racial equality should be kept up. Japan happens to be the strongest nation in Asia, a fact which puts upon her the responsibility of claiming racial equality with especial vigor. Racial equality as a theory will be granted readily enough, but this will not conduce to the wellbeing and happiness of the colored races. The only way is for everyone to improve his or her own condition and Asiatic peoples, while demanding racial equality, should also at the same time make indefatigable efforts to increase their own strength."

Complexion Of Othello Questioned

Must be a Light Skinned Moor to Win Public Favor, Declares Producers.

Hollywood, Calif., Oct. 4.—(Pacific Coast News Bureau).—The success of John Barrymore in the costume picture of "Don Juan" has inspired Rod LaRocque in using his power of persuasion to prevail upon Cecil DeMille to let him make "Othello," the Shakespearian drama, as a screen production.

Moor's Color a Question.

The most delicate question involved in producing Othello is "What color shall the Moor character take?" A few years ago a preview of the German "Othello" was shown to the New York exhibitors. Emil Jannings, the German director, played the Moor character using a dark make-up of the minstrel type. The public and exhibitors refused to accept the picture regardless of its artistic merit, resulting in a total loss to the producers.

Noble Johnson In "King of Kings"

Famous Character Actors in "The Thief of Bagdad" to Again Appear in New DeMille Production

Culver City, Calif., Oct. 4.—(Pacific Coast News Bureau).—Two princes of the flying carpet in Fairbanks' "A Thief of Bagdad," Noble Johnson and Kamiyama Sojin, will again appear together in the new Biblical production, "King of Kings," now being produced by Cecil DeMille.

Sojin whose real name is Mita, is a Japanese famous for his wonderful portrayals of convincing Oriental characters seen in the "Sea Beast," "East of Suez" and other super-productions. In "King of Kings" he is cast as a Persian prince, one of the many admirers of Mary Magdalene.

Johnson will play a double role, one of which will be the driver of the Mary Magdalene chariot drawn by a team of wild fractious zebras. Five zebras were especially imported for this scene from a circus in the Northwest.

African Prime Minister Resigns

Native Ruler Ends 35 Years of Christian Leadership.

Mombasa, British East Africa, Oct. 4.—(Pacific Coast News Bureau).—After 35 years of active leadership as head of the native cabinet of one of Great Britain's most thriving provinces in British East Africa, Sir Apolo Kagwa, prime minister of Uganda, has resigned.

Coming into prominence in 1888 when King Mwanga of Uganda decided to destroy the Christian faith there and to begin a massacre of Christians, Kagwa, then an obscure African chief, with a companion denounced the king. Kagwa's companion was killed but Kagwa escaped.

Maintains Christian Faith.

As a native statesman, administrator and general, leading an army in many of the religious struggles which troubled the land, Kagwa was a great power in the maintenance of the Christian faith, and later took a leading part in the building of the present day Uganda.

First Native Given Knighthood.

Sir Apolo Kagwa, now 80 years old, went to England in 1902 at the coronation of King Edward as the official representative of Uganda. Sir Kagwa was also the first African native to be given the K. C. M. G. (Knight Commander of St. Michael and St. George).
