MCGILLIVRAY, John Alexander, Q.C., is the son of Geo. McGillivray, by his wife, the daughter of Chas. F. Fothergill, ex-M.P.P. Mrs. McG. was a cousin of Count Montalambert, and also of the English novelist, Miss Jessie Fothergill. Born in Pickering, Ont., 1852, he was educated at Manilla and Whitby High schools, at Rockwood Acad., and at Toronto Univ., and was called to the bar, 1877. He practised his profession at Port Perry, and afterwards at Uxbridge, and in Toronto, and was created a Q.C., by the Earl of Derby, 1890. He is widely known as a successful agriculturist and breeder of fine cattle and sheep. He took a great many prizes in Dorset horned cattle at the World's Fair, Chicago, in competition with the best bred animals sent there from England and the U. S., carrying off 10 out of 15 of the first prizes, including the silver cup for sweepstakes. An enthusiastic volunteer, he has held a commission in the 34th Batt. since 1874, and was gazetted major of the regt., Jan. 20, 1893 (1st class V. B. cert.). A prominent Orangeman and a Freemason, having been D.D.G.M. of the Toronto Dist., 1894 he is also a Past High Chief Ranger and Supreme Secy. of the Ind. Order of Foresters. He is President of the Eastern Mining Syndicate and of the Brit. Am. Prospecting and Development Co. He was Mayor of Uxbridge, 1890. A Conservative in politics, he unsuccessfully contested North Ont. for the Legislature, g. e. 1886, being defeated by a plurality of 144. He was returned for the same riding to the House of Commons, Dec. 12, 1895, and sat until the close of the 7th Parli. He was returned at the g. e. 1896, against a Patron, but was unseated on petition, Dec., 1896. A member of the Presb. Ch., he married, 1881, Zella Augusta, eldest daughter of A. T. Button, J.P., Uxbridge. —Uxbridge, Ont.

MCGOUN, Archibald, advocate, is the son of Archd. McGoun, of Montreal, a native of Douglas, Lanarkshire, Scot., by his wife, Jane, daughter of Saml. Mackay, from Ayr, Scot. Born in Montreal, Dec., 1853, he was educated at the High Sch. there and at McGill Univ. (B.A., and gold medal in Mental and Moral Phil., 1876; M.A., 1889). He graduated B.C.L. at the same institution, 1878, was called to the bar the same year, and for some years was associated with F. L. Béique, Q.C. He still practises in Montreal, where he is at the head of the firm of McGoun & England. He was appointed Prof. of Civil Procedure, and afterwards of Legal Bibliography in the Faculty of Law of his Alma Mater. On the resignation of the Dean, 1896, he was appointed to lecture on constitutional law. In the same year he was recommended by the Tupper Admin. for appointment as a Q.C. Mr. McG. was long prominently identified with the Imp. Federation movement, was V.-P. of the Quebec League, and is now one of the V.-Ps. of the Brit. Empire League in Canada. Was a delegate from Canada with H. H. Lyman, G. R. Parkin and others to the Imp. Federation Conf. in London, 1886—the year of the Col. and Ind. Exh'n.—and drafted and moved in council the resolution upon which the League acted in inviting Lord Salisbury to call the Col. Conf. of 1887. He was President of the Graduates' Soc. of McGill Univ., 1886-87. He is the author of "Federation of the Empire," an address, as President, before the Univ. Lit. Soc. (1884); "Commercial Union with the United States, with a word on Imperial Reciprocity" (1887); "Work to be done by the Imperial Conference"
