

An Act to abolish, in certain cases, the right of appeal to Her Majesty in Her Privy Council.

HER Majesty, &c., enacts as follows :

Preamble.

I. From and after the first of August next, all judgments rendered by the Court of Queen's Bench in Lower Canada, and by the Court of Error and Appeal in Upper Canada, shall be final and executory, if the parties or one of them have neither applied for nor obtained permission to appeal to Her Majesty in Her Privy Council.

Judgment of Court of Appeal in Upper and Lower Canada to be final after 1st August, 1859.

II. From and after the first of August next, neither the Court of Queen's Bench in Lower Canada, nor the Court of Appeal in Upper Canada, shall grant any leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Her Privy Council, from judgments rendered by the said Courts, except in the following cases :

In what cases only appeal to Privy Council may be had.

(1) When leave to appeal shall have been applied for previous to the first of August next, in cases in which such leave to appeal may now be granted in conformity with the laws in force in this Province.

When leave shall have been applied for before 1st August, 1859.

(2) In all cases relating to the rights of the Crown and in which the Crown is a party interested.

When the Crown is a party.
