

~~The only other parties~~

No to other employment agencies in Vancouver having had to do with the influx ~~the business~~ but from <sup>business</sup> ~~business~~ <sup>from business</sup> ~~business~~ my belief is that they had as little to do with it as they had with the immigration from Japan. They prospered in <sup>Japanese</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>and employ-</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>ment</sup> ~~ment~~ agencies started up like mushrooms in a night as soon as it commenced, but all alike appear to <sup>have</sup> ~~be~~ <sup>confined</sup> their attention to securing employment <sup>for Japanese</sup> ~~to which~~ <sup>as applied to them for work</sup> and making what they could out of small ~~com-~~ <sup>missions</sup> ~~charges~~. <sup>members of the</sup> ~~The Japanese~~ <sup>Boarding House</sup> ~~Keepers Union~~ <sup>in Vancouver</sup> which was incorporated over 4 years ago profited most, but it was through the increase in the number of boarders not through labour contracts. The Canada Laundry Company composed of persons most of all of whom were members of the Boarding House Keepers Union was found in <sup>1917 or by</sup> ~~1917~~ <sup>1917</sup> it gave employment during the six months following to some — some of whom were

Siddons
have you the copy of this