Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 5th instant, I beg to say that there are no funds standing at the credit of Mary Anna Sanges, ex-pupil of the Qu'Appelle School, and wife of Fred Pascal of Gordon's Band. On the 14th August a cheque for $218.15 was sent to the Revd J. Hugonard in release of the full amount then at the young woman's credit in the books of the Department. Shortly after her annuity money for 1908 was forwarded by Agent H. Nichel to be funded. A cheque in release of this amount, $5.00, was issued on the 26th August.

Mr Nichel's attention was drawn to the fact that when an Indian does not propose to continue funding his or her annuity money for a reasonable length of time it should not be sent in to be funded.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
