

OFFICE OF THE PRIME MINISTER

E-20-1
1945

MEMORANDUM for R. G. Robertson, Esq.

C195829

This will serve to remind you that the Prime Minister wishes to entertain Mr. D. A. Macdonald at luncheon on Tuesday, July 24th.

I doubt if Mr. Macdonald's train arrives before one o'clock (it is C.N.R. from Montreal).

In the circumstances, if you get word early enough to Mr. King, it might be a wise precaution to telephone Mr. Macdonald at Alexandria that morning or late Monday afternoon. Miss Zavitske has already made arrangements about the cheque for Mr. King's deposit and will bring it forward on Tuesday so that it can be handed over to Mr. Macdonald to take back with him to Alexandria.
