N. F. H. Berlis,
Secretary, Permanent Delegation of Canada to the European Office of the United Nations, Geneva;

and

(b) that the Head of the Delegation and Mr. Boucher represent Canada at the Tenth Session of the Executive Committee of the I.R.O.

Korea; consequences of breakdown in negotiations

74. The Secretary of State for External Affairs said consideration was currently being given in Washington with U.K. and French representatives to steps that might be taken if there should be a complete breakdown of cease-fire negotiations in Korea. The United States had advanced a number of proposals for action of a political and economic character
