

These three pictures show respectively the labor room, the babies' bathing room, and the incubating room for premature babies in the new Frauenklinik, Dresden.

Corner of Section Room, St. George

This shows a corner of one of the finest pathological section rooms on the continent—very well appointed and kept with scrupulous care. Note the elbow valves and read