

Let us offer up the following prayers in Honour of the B. V. Mary, holy Mother of God, in hopes she will recommend our few and feeble prayers to her divine Son, and supply all our defects in them. Oh! Most Amiable Mother of God, life passes swiftly away and death approaches. Oh! when that awful moment arrives, be thou unto us, we beseech a most tender mother, and dispose of the Heart of thy blessed Son favourably towards us.

Hail Mary.

Oh! Most holy and Adorable Trinity, as it was by thee we began our devotions, so it is by thee we desire to conclude them. Suffer us not to depart this night without thy blessing; give it to us. Oh! Merciful Father, and may it always remain with us, and may its influence always direct our actions, and may it be a sure pledge of that final benediction which thine elect will one day receive when called by thee to thy Kingdom of Eternal Glory.

Let us conclude our present devotions this night by placing ourselves under the protection of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. May the peace and blessing of Almighty God Father, Son and Holy Ghost, descend down on us, and dwell in our hearts now and for ever more. Amen. In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.
