

A picture of the jail as it was may be seen in pamphlet No. 2 of our society, and another as it is, and the story of the Slave Rescue. From the appearance now of beautiful flowers, graceful trees and shrubs, one could never imagine that the unmitigated ugliness of the first picture could be transformed into such a scene of beauty as may now be seen. During the twenty-five years of its history as Our Western Home 2000 girls have been sent out from its walls, most of whom have become good citizens, rescued from the over-crowded life of English cities.
