Crowned with wreaths of the Harvest Home.

AN exchange says, "There is not a vegetable that can ketchup with the tomato;" and we declare that there is not a vegetable preparation in the world that can catch up with Burdock Blood Bitters.

A BURGLAR entered a house the other night, and scared a lady so badly that her hair, which was lying in an exposed place on the bureau, turned white in a single night.

"I DO hate tobacco," the maiden observed,
"Tis worse than indulgence in rum,"
But five minutes after her jaws were at work

On a sizeable chunk of spruce gum.

AN exchange says, "There is not a vegetable that can ketchup with the tomato;" and we declare that there is not a vegetable preparation in the world that can catch up with Burdock Blood Bitters.

THE OLD METHOD.—A young lady in Vassar College claims that Phthologyrrh should be pronounced Turner, and gives the following explanatory table:—

Phth (as in phthisic) is	T
olo (as in colonel) is	UR
gn (as in guat) is	N
yrth (as in myrrh) is	ER

ERTHPELAS, Scorfula, Salt Rheum, Eruptions, and all diseases of the skin and blood are promptly cured by Burdock Blood Bitters. It purges all foul humours from the system, imparting strength and vigour at the same time.

"WOUNDED in the war, were you, Paddy?" "The bullet hit me in the chest, here, surr, an' came out at me back." "Come, come, Pat, that won't do! Why, it would have gone right through your heart, man!" "Och, faix, my heart was in my mouth at the toime, surr!"

TO REMOVE STARCH OR RUST FROM FLAT IRONS.—When the iron is nearly hot rub it quickly with a bit of beeswax tied in a coarse cloth, and then with a piece of coarse cloth.

"YOU gave me the key of your heart, my love;

Then why do you make me knock!"

"Oh, that was yesterday, saints above!

And last night—I changed the lock!"

PUZZLE.—Puzzles being all the rage now-a-days, the following is one more addition to the number:—A young gentleman hearing a young lady sigh asked her what she was sighing for. She replied "Nothing," whereupon he wrote and handed her the following:—

U 0 a 0, but I 0 thee;
O 0 no 0, but O 0 me;
O let not my 0 a 0 go,
But give 0 0 I O U so.
