Announcement

Concerning our Farm and Dairy
FREE PURE BRED PIGS

WE want you to know about this great offer, which is the most popular premium we have ever given away to our people who help us.

Perhaps you have read about our offer of pure bred pigs given away free to our people who help us to get new subscribers for Farm and Dairy. In case you haven't we want you to read this announcement. The names of some of our people who have received our pigs are given in the margins of this announcement. Perhaps your name is there. Likely someone you know is there.

We will give you free of all cost
Pigs from the following breeds:

Tamworth

Yorkshire

Berkshire

in return for new subscriptions to Farm and Dairy

These pigs are from some of the finest pure bred stock in the country. They are eligible for registration at once.

In case you want to improve your stock now is your opportunity. All around your locality you have neighbors. Every one of them wants to get ahead. They want to get in touch with other farmers throughout the country and find out what they are doing.

They want to know how to make more money. They want to know how to live better. They want to know how to do things easier. In short, they want to exchange ideas with other progressive farmers and with more progressive farmers elsewhere, just as if they could go to the expense of making a personal visit to them and spending some time visiting at their farms.

Your neighbors can do those things through the columns of Farm and Dairy, even as you are now doing with interest, pleasure and profit to yourself.

Supposing that you spend an hour or so just now in the evenings, visiting your neighbors, and getting their subscriptions to Farm and Dairy. The amount for the subscription is very small—less than $2 a week. Fifty-two numbers of this good farm paper for only $1.00. A bushel of oats and a bushel of barley will more than pay for Farm and Dairy for a whole year.

Get us only nine (9) new subscriptions to Farm and Dairy, each at only $1.00, and we give you a pure bred pig. You can have your own choice. Get nine (9) more and you get another pig. You can get a mighty fine start in pure bred pigs this way.

This offer is open to everyone of our friends who read Farm and Dairy. It ought to be of special interest to ladies who want to make some extra pin money. Take subscriptions for Farm and Dairy in spare time, afternoons or evenings, and get our pigs, and then sell them later on, or sell their increase, and you will be able to buy a lot of things you have been planning on.

This opportunity is an excellent one if you wish to help father raise the mortgage, or get a good start in pure bred pigs and help yourself.

You Benefit Friends! You Profit Yourself! You Help Us

WELL PLEASED

"Last year Farm and Dairy sent me a pure bred Yorkshire pig for a club baby for getting up a club of nine new subscribers to Farm and Dairy. This pig was bred by W. F. Disney of Greenwood, Ont., and is now a fine animal. It weighs about 300 lbs. and the farmers in my vicinity like it. I received the pedigree of the pig from Mr. Disney and am much pleased with my transaction."—John Doherty, Peterboro, Ont.

TRYING FOR ANOTHER

"Last year, I received a pure bred pig as a premium from Farm and Dairy for getting up a club of nine new subscribers. This pig is a fine animal now. It weighs about 250 lbs. and I am well pleased with him. I am trying now to secure another pig, shortly. This pig was a Berkshire, and was bred by W. F. Elliott, of Coleman."—D. R. Scott, Halton Co., Ont.

Supposing that you sign the coupon here given and send it to us tonight telling us that you are going to hustle for new subscriptions for Farm and Dairy and give us the pleasure of sending you some of these pure bred pigs.
