QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Veterinary.

WEAK KNEES.

Three-year-old mare that has never been driven has weak knees. How can I prevent her becoming knee-sprung? J. S.

Ans.—Horses with congenitally weak knees are very prone to become worse. Medicinal treatment does no good. Keep her in a box stall, with level floor, and feed her off the floor. This tends to strengthen the knees, and is all you can do.

INDOLENT WOUND.

In October, my dog got a wound on the bridge of his nose, which penetrated to the nostrils. The lining of the nostrils has healed, but the external wound refuses to heal. I have been treating with iodoform.

Ans.—Dress the wound, once daily, with equal parts butter of antimony and tincture of myrrh, applied with a feather. After that, dust, twice daily, with equal parts iodoform and boracic acid.

ITCHY SKIN—SALLANDERS.

Five-year-old Shire stallion, weighing 1,875 lbs., imported six weeks ago, swells in his legs, and is itchy, and bites them, and there are cracks in front of his hocks.

Ans.—Some horses of the heavy breeds, and especially those with beefy legs, are predisposed to conditions of this kind, and it is probable you will always have more or less trouble with this one. Feed bran only for twelve hours, then give a purgative of 10 drams aloes and 2 drams ginger, and feed bran only for twenty-four hours afterwards. Then feed on good hay, and a gallon each of bran and rolled oats, and  $\frac{1}{2}$  pint linseed meal, three times daily, and give a turnip or two, or a carrot, daily. Give him  $\frac{1}{4}$  ounce Fowler's solution of arsenic on his food, twice daily every alternate week for six weeks. To check the itchiness in his legs, dress, twice daily, with a solution of corrosive sublimate, 20 grains to a quart of water, well rubbed into the skin. Dress the cracks in front of the hocks with an ointment made of 4 drams boracic acid, 20 drops carbolic, and 2 ounces vaseline. Apply three times daily. If proud flesh appears, apply butter of antimony with a feather, once daily for three days.

MISCELLANEOUS.

1. Young mare makes a noise when inhaling air, when driven fast or drawing heavily. When at ordinary work, her wind appears to be all right.

2. Does this constitute an unsoundness?

3. Are turnips good for horses?

4. Mare has always had a soft, puffy lump in front of the hock when standing, but it disappeared on exercise. Later, it has got larger, and the whole joint is swollen and hot. She is not lame, but the enlargement does not disappear on exercise.

Ans.—1. This is called roars, and is incurable. It is usually a sequel to laryngitis or distemper.

2. It is certainly an unsoundness, but if it does not increase in degree, will not materially interfere with her usefulness, while it is liable to become worse and lessen her usefulness, even for ordinary work.

3. Yes; working or driving horses are the better of 1 or 2 daily, and idle horses may safely be given more.

4. This is a bog spavin. The swelling of the joint is due to sprain or bruise. Allow her to stand idle. Bathe the joint long and often with hot water, and after bathing rub with camphorated liniment. When the general swelling and inflammation subsides, you may be able to reduce the original bog by blistering repeatedly, details for which are often given in these columns.

Miscellaneous.

SPEED OF DRIVEN PULLEY.

A pulley, 40 inches across, runs 250 revolutions in one minute. What size of wheel is needed on a countershaft to run a five-inch pulley 2,500 revolutions per minute?

Ans.—Multiply the speed of the line-shaft pulley (250) by its diameter (40), and divide by the speed required (2,500). The diameter of the wheel on the countershaft is thus 4 inches.

"IT'S ONLY A COLD, A TRIFLING COUGH"

Thousands have said this when they caught cold. Thousands have neglected to cure the cold. Thousands have filled a Consumptive's grave through neglect. Never neglect a cough or cold. It can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

is the medicine you need. It strikes at the very foundation of all throat or lung complaints, relieving or curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Sore Throat, and preventing Pneumonia and Consumption.

It has stood the test for many years, and is now more generally used than ever. It contains all the lung healing virtues of the pine tree combined with Wild Cherry Bark and other pectoral remedies. It stimulates the weakened bronchial organs, allays irritation and subdues inflammation, soothes and heals the irritated parts, loosens the phlegm and mucous, and aids nature to easily dislodge the morbid accumulations. Don't be humbugged into accepting an imitation of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and price 25 cts.

Mr. Julian J. LeBlanc, Belle Cote, N.S., writes: "I was troubled with a bad cold and severe cough, which assumed such an attitude as to keep me confined to my house. I tried several remedies advertised but they were of no avail. As a last resort I tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and one bottle cured me completely."
