verid for years, but, of class common wellprevented us from or using it care (Hear We should never have thought of mathese comparisons will kindred Missioner ties, but we are now compened. (Heat,) And it is well that we have been cond. It is well that our friends should as those men who are assided before the ba public have been doing for many yearsar, hear.) I appeal to you, whether your agers have not made the cloth-whether with full power and authority to beseech sinners souls. don't get the work done. ((heers.) They to be reconciled to God. The more frequently talk about balance sheets, items, and enuntil they puzzle me, but I mak at the g before me-I see a large mumber of hand loyed, all the hands weil paid, the cloth well e, and the work done. (Cheers.) But as duties of our high calling, is not only indispen- lowing,-pages 10 and 73ch this plain statement is an answer suffici sable, but that all possible means should be used to any reasonable man, don't imagine it s e with any desire to divert your attention for the accomplishment of so glorious an object. I the important consideration of our Mission In order to a proper discharge of the duties of management. Fix attention on anything the ministerial office no extraordinary power of like, and the best thing you can do is genius or depth of penetration-though both and bore, and bore until you can get right nav find ample employment-appears to be absoit. ("Hear, hear," and langhter.) The les g that any supporter of this Society can do make hinself thoroughly acquainted with When I say this, I never suppose for a tax Promotion of God's glory in the salvation of souls. it that a man is trying to make himself as Sc. Paul says " the love of Christ constraineth inted with anything, it he listens only to one as:" and so says every genuine successor of the , and does not listen to what is said on the Apostle ; and the same Apostle who said, "By that would come to the field. er. (Hear, hear.) If you listen to what s I against me, and do not take the trouble to grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of en to what my friend may say for me. I should think that you were informing yourself. I tht call you very zealous partizans, but not sons of much candour. Persons who adout plan must give up all idea of being supposed se looking for information, or of wishing to get Volume where our commission is found. Nor t. (Hear, hear.) Now, I have heard one is it necessary, in the changes which are conhe items of our expenditure—the printing ected to. I admit that there is an immense stantly occurring in the national, political, and a spent for printing every year. I find, on looking over the charges for printing stained in this year's report, the amount in promulgation of the gospel, required his minis-7-1. but, as presently will be seen, nearly one ters to use, in order to bring sinners to himsusand pounds of this belongs to a different

seli.

the highest possible degree in the works of litersture and art, but to the Christian Minister no new invention or discovery in connexion with his greak work is either, expected or required, easionally attend to this duty, but so seldom, · de ver la veladir is a fraguel in this way-not walking for them to come to us. (the Lord ? but our going in search of them? If the other Nov. Lo. 1 . Co.

former and the second and the second Armeles, as a general raie, should be short and piths . " he variety in each number is the sector of neajager popularity and usefulness.

or education, temperance, literature, science, ad ref gran-limistrations of Providence-Mactices of Service characters-inverses in a succedens—discription for characters—Papers on any prominent leader G. Matthewski.

egory. However, I look into the general law the Society, and I find that they pledge it to e back to its supporters a certain per centage their money in the form of printed books.

ery subscriber of a guinea, (and at the day ien those laws were made a larger subscription is rare.) is entitled to a copy of the printed port—that is, say five per cent. of his money.

lear, hear.) Every party collecting a shilling a ek is entitled to a copy of the yearly report d of the monthly notices then sold at 2d per unber-in other words, it is a stipulation that ev shall have back six per cent. of their moy in the form of printed books. Then, if you ke this charge, we have 8891, for actual stock we may call it, for addresses. Christmas collect g papers, circulars, posting bills, annual kets, secretaries,' treasures,' and collector ooks, and other things which must be provided

r. and which do not come within the two gene

I laws which bind the circulation of books nong the subscribers. (Hear, hear.) Deducting at sum, our charge for printing is 4.889L, and at is a less per centage on our entire income an would be supposed by these two general ws that I have pointed ont, as lying at the fouration of the society. It is competent for the seety to revise its laws. It is competent for any an to say that it is not necessary to print so such; but the general laws are there, and the reatifum of printing does not amount to more ian the sum there contemplated; and as to the atement that you can save $500 a year in rinting the report, it is quite out of the que-

on. Every body understands how work is done

London, and if any person who does under and the matter will take this book into his hands e will see whether any respectable printer calo it less by £500 a year than the cost at present neurred. The thing is perfectly monstrous. But apposing it were true. Supposing a few hur reds a year may have gone that way more than ras prudent, is that a reason for which a rational uman being would get up and say-" Withhold our contributions from this society ?" (Shour f "No. no. no.") Is that a reason for which a hristian man would stay the work of God among

To be continued.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Origina Matter is particularly requested for this Paper. showns. Local Intelegence—Biographics—Nonces of me nation occurs, rise, and progress of Methodism in the course. Revivals, and remarkable Conversions—After and he heathen? Surely not.

For the Wesleysa.

OF I-DOOR PREACHING.

The work of preaching the gospel of the grad of God is in the estimation of every truly of

I did not mind the most important and the heaven upon it. To go no further back than will enlarge our borders and cause his work as native vessels has been off notice published a 1 not no a margine of all employments. Important, the last century, we say look at the effects pro- to appear unto our children. the same that proper discharge of the Christian cluded through these means by the ministry of Mose also by is suspended the salvation of ine , Western and Whiteen in. We may confi-Me size the following extract from a letter. It is his cleared duties and have the advantage 1 or 3 C sl. - and honomable, because the Min- man's hand seen by those reformers, would never dated Fredericton. N. B., Novr. 29th, recei- 1 water characteristic many the winter, some lact the bar and the state of Janes Christ is none other than an Am-thave overspread our moral hemisphere, as it has wed from a valued triend,—who, we know, the settine congregation at the perish Church has ster of design from the Court of Heaven, invested done, had they not in this way sought after ean use his pen well,—for the purpose of presented to him a purse of thing sounds. So desirous was Mr. Wesley that this practice important Circuit.

we look at this subject under the above aspect, should be continued, that he strongly recommendthe more convinced we become that a faithful, ed it to all his fellow-labourers. In the 1st among us here, I have re-added to the Soaffectionate and indefatigable discharge of the Volume of the large Minutes we have the fol-

> " Q. Is field preaching unlawful? A. We conceive not. We do not know that it is contrary to any law either of God or man

Q. Have we not used it too sparingly? A. It seems we have .- 1st. Because our call is to save the lost Now--we cannot expect such to seek us; therefore we should go and seek them. Intely necessary. The soul must be influenced 2nd. Because we are particularly called by goby the love of Christ, and a burning zeal for the ing into the highway and hedges (which none else will) to compel them to come in. 3rd. Because that reason against it is not good .- " The house will hold all that will come." The house

"The greatest hindrances to this you are to yourselves, it is the gift of God," also said, "I expect from the rich, or cowardly, or lary Me- in this and other Circuits of the two Districts. thodists: But regard them not neither Stewards. ma made all things to all men that I might by all Leaders nor people. Whenever the weather means save some." The means to be used to will permit go out in the name of the Lee L into in mind that it is giving an unfold influence save souls are ploinly made known to us in the the most public places, and call all to 'repent and believe the gospel. Livery Assistant at the whole world could read the throlling least in every Circuit, hould endeavour to preach speech delivered by the Rev. W. Athur at abroad every Sunday, especially in the old Soin the methols, which God has, from the first new places has greatly camped the work of fail to do good. I was personally acquainted

In V.A. 5, page 148, is the following-

"In order to promote an increase of the con-The present has been termed emphatically the gregations, and a revival of the work of God age of invention. The genius of manis taxed to let us have recourse, even in our old established Circuits to the practice of preaching out of doors: seeking in order to save that which is lost."

Some of our Brethren in this country do oc-

The path for him to tread was marked out cen- that it would at year as though it were regarded turies ago, and his duty is to walk with steadfast- as a work of supercrogation. The testimony paratively small degree of success with which in a St. John, N. B., Love-feast I have frequently lically acted upon. the preaching of the gospel is attended, the la- heard. On such occasions my spirit has been mentation of the Prophet is often taken up, stirred within me, and my soul greatly cheered Who hath believed our report," &c., and in ca- on hearing individuals testify of their having diayouring to a scertain the cause of this want of round mercy through this means. In that City, spress, the principle is it attributed to the people while descerating the Sabbath, they were arbeing goapel bordered; and supposing that as rested in the public street by the sound of salva-they are faithfully and affectionarely warned, tion from some Herald of the Cross. It is highholde with of the regulatory is at times to I are the r will admin shall we not hope to see many for a rotal the home of Right cases so The sell to the notify that a configuration of our Brothen, a policy those whose physical A light cross from the cross of Calcay.

Was you William to great the form

المعالم المراكب المحاوية المراورة المراورة

Fredericton, (N. B.) Circuit.

showing how matters are progressing in that .

think we are going to have a revival of religion."

Short-sweet-encouraging. May the expectation be realized !

A Salutary lint.

My dear Brother, -- I am happy to inform-you that I have succeeded in procuring two additional subscribers to the Wesleyan. It is may hold all that come to the house but not all gratifying to find that the IVesleyan is highly appreciated by our people and I have no doubt but it will receive a much wider circulation But if Subscribers would be procured, the Brethren must bestir themselves, ever hearing to our beloved cause-Methodism. I wish the Legis Missionary Meeting. Do, if posstantly occurring in the national, political, and cieties, lest they settle upon their lees. The sible, give us as extensive extracts of it as usual world, to introduce any essential changes want of preaching abroad and of preaching in your space will admit, as I am sure it cannot with the man, and boarded the ship that carried him to India before she left the London Dock. Yours, &c. Richo. Weddall. Yarmouth, December 7th, 1849.

Our Correspondent will see that his wish s in a fair way of being gratified. We publish part of Mr. Arthur's speech to-day, and shall conclude it in our next. We had intended to offer some remarks upon it in this number, but want of space has compelled us to reserve them for a future opportunity. The hint thrown out by our brother, is salaness and faithfulness in it. In looking at the com- borne to the good effects of out door preaching tary and valuable. We hope it will be prac-

CHOICE SAYINGS.

In proportion to the visitations of the Holy spirituality of our worship, the ardour of our | the headships of those societies, on the next vacanzeal and charity, and the exact of our time | cles to leaders of the Tractagian party among its and some one iel manifestation of Divine power by gratifying to find that in England much nore, tolkers to the cause of Christ, -- Christ is the godfows. Magetalen, Trinity, Queen's, Oriel, and is made in their behalf things must remain as attention is paid to this work than formerly .- appeinted medium of our intercourse with other code, es, have been especially named to us. they are -we continue to weep between the Even in the established Church an attempt is Cook, and the Spirit helps us to avail ours) they are, we community weep between the revenue to the transfer and the alter. It is indeed an await truth rande in this way to promote a reference selves of that unspeakable privilege. — The letters by the poet Shelly are now in the market that the Minister of Christ is too often the sa- among the lower Classes. Hardy met with an Spirit never nots without us. True regenthere the Minister of Christ is too often the sa- among the lower Classes. Hardy met with an extraction of Christ is too often the sa- among the lower Classes. Hardy met with an extraction of death to those who might be saved; that article on this subject in the English Wesley in so our exercises. He draws us to Class, in Lower Bodge Track Chester, received intelligence has been, and many at this moment are made in the first special so our exercises. He draws us to Class in Lower Bodge Track Chester, received intelligence has lines of heart and the region of extensive circulation. It is specially the stable of faith, and revises will Wynne was constituted to made I hard it is not be stored the without should have been and a large track of prevents. the brace? God all bearen afford to save the will prove a possibilistic day and Whattever the respect of the fight, held it is a money Figures in the processing of our regular works prother and A on with need in the order in the pro-For may we not suppose that want of some and he the reason of the section when the west campulation - Franch is true place that always mothed - a not? My high was instituted by our lever less may be adequate to the worst, proclaims, which to med the black of a lot Sixolanda Lord hipself, and processed by his apostles. I ing to become a distude in the streets and lanes pillar of glass. The world has two and he will be who do not attend in some Salcouch who mean out-door proceding—bearing after sinners, of our Chiyaland Towns, the acceptable year of of which is a second of which the procedure of the procedure of the procedure of the Lord of the Lord of the North of the Lord o struction with the song of a line. A link of the Wakish Government has retailed and leaps upon its prog. He am not by him to have non-contrations measured at throughout the co-A secret diel main inger complaned when none the state of the secret diel main in a secret diel main inger complaned when none the secret diel main in a s we have in the truths of the region of the second s tor by the respect to represent the original state of the respect to the property of the prope itends are a summer of the second of the readous consequence of the second of the seco gan did notes desire the transfer of months description of the part of the part of the second of the transfer of the transfer of the part of the transfer of the part of the p or a temperate for a figure to the first of the get from the accompanies to the second

.

The health of the Rev Thomas McGill, curate of (Claphara, Eng.) requiring that he should abstant terr how had guiners, as an expression of how

The Rev Dr. Secrests delive! a speech to a "Through mercy there is improvement Whithy lostitute, in which he states very a to ciety some five or six backshiders, and recei- dentis his hopes for the safety of Sir John Frankved eight new members on trial. Our public sin, grounding them upon the considerations that it and private means are honoured indeed of was not likely some little band of 140 scientific and the Lord. To-morrow week we contemplate | hards n we should not have made their way, had having a Society Fast. Our District Fast there been a gatastrophe, within the range of some was a good time, and some of our people fishing stations; and that had the ressels been detroved in the interior ices the very bodies of ice would afferd platforms for escape, and because supposing no catastrophe, they in this, just as easily as Sir J. Ross, temain scaled up, and unheard of for a like period, and yet be as sale.

> The Right Hou. Mr. Macaulay, by an unanimous vote of the students, has been elected Lord Rec. tor of Glasgow University, so that he will remain in office another year.

The late Mr. Thos. Lewis, of Liverpool, (English has left ten thousand pounds to the National Communications) tery, on condition that a portrait of his father, the releprated actor, be burng within its walls

The Austrian " Lloyd" states that 200,000 Russian troops are to be kept on a footing of war in 🌬 land throughout the winter. A Russian Consulate has been established at Cracow.

A gold coin of the emperor Flavius Jovianus has ately been discovered by a poor boy at Scotter, Lincolnshire. It is rare, few coins having been struck in the emperor's brief reign of eight mouths, in the year 363.

Mr James Montgomery recently completed his seventy-eighth year, on which occasion his friends and nea histors joined in congratulating the ven-

The result of an interview which lately took place between Mr. Rives, the U. S. Minister in France, and Lord Palmerston is said to leave little done to, such an adjustment of the matter, as will throw the Nacaragua route open to all nations on

The Tablet is, on the 1st of next January, to be published in Dublie, instead of London It was understood to receive little or no countenance from the English Roman Catholics.

Intrigues are deeply laid, says the Church Ca-Spirit, will be the purity of our lives, the prefer at several colleges at Oxford, for securing

A small collection of unpublished autograph Trere are now on the Bestield navy but 1.4 c. 1 . at , 534 past captains, who commanders, and to soft the chartren in Indianapele, there are one in the same of the parameter and , the later of a tille in to a little to writing be also and the

The same of the same of the same was distance to be and of a large g